Allies Propose Buffer Zone Compromise As Talks Reopen

Attack Catches Enemy Napping

U. S. Fighter Bombers Hit Hard at Red Rail System

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, KOREA, Oct. 25—(AP)—Allied warplanes pounded the crippled North Korean rail system today in one of the war's most concentrated attacks.

Wave after wave of fighter bombers roared down on Red rolling stock caught out in the open. U. S. Fifth Air Force officers said the Reds were completely surprised and had no time to get their trains into the shelter of tunnels.

Nine locomotives and 99 railcars were destroyed. Nineteen locomotives and 129 cars were listed as damaged.

3 Jet Scraps

Three brief jet battles were recorded during the day. One Russian-made MIG-15 was damaged. There were no reports of Allied losses.

One F-4-U Corsair crashed and burned in Red territory after being hit by ground fire. The Air Force said there was no chance the pilot survived.

A comparative lull fell across the battle fronts as truce talks resumed in Panmunjom.

There was some sharp action southeast of Kumsong on the central front. Tank-supported infantry seized a Communist-held hill despite strong Red resistance.

Doughboys stormed the high ground as American tanks hit the Chinese entrenched in their bunkers.

South of this peak, other Allied foot soldiers maintained pressure against Chinese forces clinging to the tip of a high ridgeline mostly occupied by the Allies.

Southeast of Kumsong a tank-infantry force probed almost a mile deep into Red defenses before turning back.

Elsewhere across the peninsula U.N. patrols probed Red positions. All met small arms and mortar fire.

Would Swap Territory With Reds

2½ Mile Corridor Suggested; Generally Follows Battle Line

MUNSAN, Korea, Oct. 25—(AP) The United Nations today proposed a give-and-take compromise to set up a buffer zone across the wartorn Korean peninsula.

The U.N. proposal called for the Allies to yield about 200 square miles of North Korea in the east, and for the Reds to give up a similar area in the west.

The buffer zone would be about 2½ miles wide and follow generally present battle lines.

The proposal was introduced in a subcommittee meeting in Panmunjom shortly after the cease-fire negotiations were resumed by the main Red and Allied teams, ending a 64-day breakdown in the parleys.

There was no immediate indication of Communist reaction. The Reds previously demanded a buffer zone along Parallel 38, old political boundary between north and south Korea.

Maj. Gen. Henry L. Hodes, subcommitteeman who presented the Allied proposal cautioned the Reds to accept it, or face a less favorable offer later. He pointed out that while talks were in recess, the Allies had advanced their line many miles northward.

To Meet Again Tonight

After the proposal, accompanied by detailed maps, was made to the Communists, the subcommittees adjourned until 11 a.m. Friday (9 p.m., E.S.T.) Thursday).

Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, U.N. command spokesman, said the Communists would be obliged to give up Kaesong, former site of cease-fire talks. It is just below Parallel 38 in western Korea.

The proposed buffer zone would run from the mouth of the Yesong River in west Korea to 11½ miles southeast of Kosong on the Korean east coast. The Allies are about 50 miles north of Parallel 38 in that area.

The line would run about four miles south of Pyonggang, apex of the old Iron Triangle buildup area of the Communists. It would bend south to about 6½ miles south of Kumsong, the blasted Red headquarters and supply center on the central front, now virtually in Allied hands.

From that point it would twist northeastward and through a point about 15 miles north of the Hwachon reservoir on the east central front and then generally northeast to the east coast."

"Amicable Session"

Allied forces would keep hard-won, blood-soaked Heartbreak Ridge on the east central front.

Nickols said the main delegations session was "very amicable." After half an hour Gen. Nam Il chief Red envoy, proposed that the cease-fire problem be handed back to the subcommittees. The Allies agreed.

The subcommittees were deadlocked on the issue when the Reds called off the talks at Kaesong Aug. 23.

Nickols said: "We wasted very little time on administrative matters. The desire of the United Nations delegation was to get onto

MRS. HEBER H. VOTAW, sister of President Harding whose death occurred Monday, is shown in the above photograph taken in Washington, D. C, in 1922, during the second year of the Harding administration. Funeral services were held today in Tacoma Park, Md., her home. Mrs. Votaw, who spent her girlhood in Marion, presented the photograph to her cousin, Mrs. J. H. Denman of 393 West Center street, during the latter's visit in Washington. Still living is one member of President Harding's family, Mrs. Charity M. Remsberg of Santa Ana, Calif., a sister.

Chest Drive Scheduled To End Tonight

The 10-day Red Feather Community Chest drive to raise $97,764 to finance the agencies of the Marion Community Foundation is scheduled to end tonight with final reports by volunteer workers, at the Y.M.C.A. The "Dutch treat" dinner is scheduled for 6:30 o'clock.

Division heads and workers are busy today making last minute calls and turning in reports at the campaign headquarters at the Y.

Paul Felder, a member of the executive committee, will preside for tonight's meeting and music will be by Dick Myers and his orchestra. Workers are asked to make their reports as early as possible so as not to delay the posting of the figures.

Reservations for the meeting indicate there will be a good turnout of workers and representatives of the Community Foundation.

Reported in the 100 percent chest participation column today is the Smart & Waddell Shoe Stores.

A recording of tonight's report will be made by WMRN and will be heard immediately following the broadcast of the Harding-Ashland game, approximately 10:05 p.m.

ALERTED FOR FRANCE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25—(AP)—The Air Force said today the 126th Light Bomber Wing will leave soon for France. The unit, equipped with B-26 bombers, is a former Air National Guard wing made up of squadrons from Illinois and Missouri. It will be the first regular U. S. Air Force unit to be stationed in France since World War II.

British Voting Is Heavy, Tories Not So Optimistic

Strike Cuts Off Milk In New York

Twelve Million Affected By Teamsters Walkout

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 —(AP)—Almost all milk supplies were cut off from 12,000,000 consumers in the three-state metropolitan area today by a strike of 15,000 drivers and dairy plant workers.

Hope for settlement rested largely on the imminent probability of an Office of Price Stabilization order raising retail milk prices. This might place the employers in a position to satisfy the strikers' pay demands.

Marathon negotiations, which started yesterday noon, continued almost continuously through the night and early today in an effort to settle the dispute.

Mediators representing the federal government, New York state, New Jersey, Connecticut, and New York City guided the talks.

Says Progress Made

Latest word on the course of the negotiations was a mediator's statement last night that "definite progress" was being made.

The strike, which began at 4 p.m. yesterday, was called by five locals of the A.F.L. International Brotherhood of Teamsters in a move to enforce a demand for a 20 percent wage increase.

The walkout hit some 200 companies serving New York City, Long Island, suburban Westchester County, N. Y.; eight counties in northern New Jersey and parts of two more. And the southwestern corner of Connecticut.

Deliveries to plants from New York's milkshed started to halt as soon as the strike started upon expiration of a company-union contract.

Many of the milkshed farmers, who normally ship $500,000 worth of milk daily into the New York market were expected to send their milk to local plants for conversion into cheese, ice cream and other products.

The strike's impact on consumers was felt starting at 2 a.m.

3 More Ports To Be Struck, Leader Says

NEW YORK, Oct. 25—(AP)—The wildcat dock strikers' leader says the walkout that has paralyzed the port of New York will spread today to Philadelphia, Baltimore and Chester, Pa.

John J. (Gene) Sampson, who heads the insurgent pier workers, said pickets already had left New York for the three cities in an effort to idle piers there.

Sampson's assertion came after a three-hour heated session between the split factions of the A.F.L. International Longshoremen's Association which broke up at 1 a.m. today.

Federal mediator Clyde M. Mills, who presided at the meeting, when asked about the progress of negotiations to end the 11-day old rebel strike, said only:

"They got a lot of things off their chests."

Mills added that he would call another meeting later in the day.

Meanwhile, Joseph P. Ryan, I.L.A. president, said he would meet with his executive board today to cope with the new developments.

Besides the New York and New Jersey piers, Boston and Albany, N. Y., docks are idle as a result of the strike.

Last night, a plan to end the crippling strike collapsed when rebel dock workers refused to follow Sampson's suggestion that a new vote be taken on a recently approved contract.

The contract, which upped hourly pay from $2 to $2.10, is the main contention in the intra-union fight. The insurgents want

Socialists Getting Out Huge Vote

Churchill Files Suit for Libel Against London Paper

LONDON, Oct. 25—(AP)—An unprecedented surge of voting during the first six hours of the British general election today cooled some of the pre-election optimism in the Conservative party, one of its officials said.

Estimates of the expected Tory majority "have been scaled down," he added.

Survey reports from virtually every major area of the country reached Conservative headquarters shortly after noon.

The official said the number of people who cast ballots between 7 and 9 a.m. was "much greater than last time." The majority of these early voters would be socialist government supporters, balloting before they went to factories and industrial plants.

"Every indication is that they (the socialists) have succeeded in getting out a big vote," the official said.

Between 9 a.m. and noon, the source said, the polling appeared to be running two percent greater than in the 1950 election. Conservatives said they were confident that these ballots were "at least evenly divided, if not favorable to us."

The source, who asked not to be identified, said "estimates of the majority have been scaled down now. They are talking about 35 to 45 seats."

Conservative supporters had talked of majorities running from 70 to 100 seats.

Observers Keep Count

Both parties had observers at the polling places in strategic districts, keeping unofficial counts of the voting. The figures and estimates came from a compilation of their reports.

Winston Churchill announced this afternoon that he has filed suit for libel against the London Daily Mirror. The Conservative party central office said the statement came from Churchill's London home. It read:

"A writ has been issued on behalf of Mr. Winston Churchill for alleged libel contained on page one of today's issue of the 'Daily Mirror.'"

The exact nature of the libel was not stated.

All editions of the mass-circulation popular newspaper were alike today.

All bore the headline "Whose Finger?"

Under the headline was a sketch of a gun.

The caption under this said: "Today your finger is on the trigger. See you defend peace with security and progress with fair shares. Vote for the party you can really trust. The Daily Mirror believes that party is Labor."

Nothing else appeared on the page except a picture of Attlee in the lower left-hand corner, and a picture of Churchill in the lower right-hand corner.

With the nation fearing war, election campaigners of both major parties have been asking "Whose finger do you want on the trigger?"

The weather, which had been foggy and cold when the polls opened at 7 a. m., turned fine during the morning. In London, the sun shone brilliantly in an almost cloudless sky.

Some people waited in the grey, clammy dawn to cast their ballots as soon as the polls opened. Workmen stopped on their way to factories, mingling with others coming home from all-night shifts.

Transport Voters

Both Conservatives and Socialists sent fleets of automobiles through the streets to carry voters who were short of time or unable to find other transportation.

Election officials in many districts throughout London and other large cities, including Cardiff, Leeds and Bristol, reported very heavy voting during the morning.

Egypt's Foreign Minister Consults Russian Envoy

CAIRO, Oct. 25—(AP)—Russia's envoy to Egypt met for 90 minutes last night with Egyptian foreign minister Salah El Din and Cairo newspapers erupted today with banner headlines on the news.

Salah El Din told reporters after the meeting that he and Soviet minister Semen Pavlovitch Kozyrev had discussed "Egypt's support of Russia's demand for appointment of a Russian judge at the Hague International Court and other questions concerning Egypt."

The independent newspaper Al Ahram said Salah El Din, asked by reporters whether Russia had offered Egypt arms, replied that armament affairs were not discussed.

Britain, already maintaining a tight military and naval control of the Suez Canal zone, reiterated her determination also not to be forced out of the vast cotton-growing Sudan to the south.

In the Sudan's capital, Khartoum, British civil secretary Sir James Robertson told the legislative assembly today Egypt's cancellation of the 1899 condominium agreement was invalid. The agreement set up joint British-Egyptian control of the Sudan, which Egypt now claims as hers alone.

Dicker With Mossadegh On Reopening Oil Talks

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25—(AP)—State Department officials appeared cautiously optimistic today about chances for the resumption of talks between Britain and Iran in their bitter tug-of-war over Iran's oil nationalization.

American officials were reported to be exploring intensively with Iranian Premier Mohammed Mossadegh various proposals for a formula which might provide a basis for negotiations. The British government was being kept informed of developments.

POSSIBLE BOYLE SUCCESSOR

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25—(INS)—President Truman's advisers report today that Frank E. McKinney, banker, politician and sportsman of Indianapolis, is the new "dark horse" possibility for Democratic national chairman.

Mayor Asks Support In Church Drive

Mayor Harold F. Robinson today called upon all Marionites to cooperate with the Religion in American Life movement in a proclamation declaring November Religion in American Life Month.

The proclamation, signed today, said: "In this year with much of the rest of the world darkened by clouds of ill omen among men, we Americans find reason to turn again to that faith upon which our nation was founded and find in that faith new strength and new hope for the future.

"The entire month of November has been set aside by the nationwide, interfaith movement known as Religion in American Life for the visible and tangible reaffirmation of that faith in the eyes of all men.

"Since the days of the Pilgrims it has been the custom of the American people each autumn to set aside a day for giving thanks to God for the blessings He has bestowed.

"Therefore I proclaim November Religion in American Life Month and . . . urge all the people of this city to bear witness to their gratitude to God and make their faith manifest anew in their churches and synagogues."

150 Sign Up To Give Blood

Ten More Needed To Reach Quota

If the office staff and blood donor chairman of the Marion County Chapter of the American Red Cross seem to be wearing wreaths of smiles today, there's a reason. Registration for tomorrow's visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile unit reached 150 at noon today. The 10 more persons needed to meet the county quota of 150 will volunteer, they believe.

Colds and other unexpected circumstances always necessitate last minute cancelations, so they are hoping that more than the required 10 to reach the quota will be registered by the time the unit takes it's first donor at 12 noon Friday.

With more and more blood needed for caring for the wounded men in the Korean battle sector, and the need for keeping an adequate supply on hand for civilian needs, the Red Cross feels that civilians are going to do their part in the Blood Donor program.

The unit is at the Marion Power Shovel Co. today where 160 donors also are needed if the quota of 120 pints of blood is met.

Senate Group Says Marine Morale Low

Criticize Lavish Use of Men And Money in Report

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25—(AP)—A Senate armed services subcommittee reported today it had found dissatisfaction and low morale among Marines—particularly recalled reservists—at three bases.

"This was discouraging in view of the long history of high morale and esprit de corps of the Marines," the group said. There was no immediate comment from the Marine Corps.

The three bases are El Toro and Camp Pendleton in California and Camp LeJeune in North Caroline.

Four Bases

The subcommittee criticized the Navy and Marine Corps for what it called lavish use of men and money, in a report which also covered conditions at the Marine Corps air station, Quantico, Va., the Navy's amphibious base at Little Creek near Norfolk, Va., and the Navy's submarine base, New London, Conn.

The preparedness subcommittee, headed by Senator Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex) was set up shortly after fighting broke out in Korea to keep an eye on the mobilization program. This was its 31st report; others have dealt with a wide variety of mobilization problems.

In general, the latest report praised the food, clothing supplies, instruction, medical care, housing and recreation facilities at the six training centers.

But in addition to reporting low morale at the three Marine

Ousted Tax Agent Faces House Probers

Blames Yesterday's Failure To Appear On "Misunderstanding"

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25—(AP)—Joseph P Marcelle, ousted internal revenue collector at Brooklyn, was subpenaed today for a delayed appearance before a House ways and means subcommittee investigating administration of the tax laws.

Marcelle failed to show up at a scheduled hearing yesterday, and the committee ordered legal steps to force his appearance. He accepted service of the papers in New York yesterday afternoon after telephoning the committee he would be on hand to testify today.

In New York Marcelle issued a statement declaring his failure to appear yesterday was a result of misunderstanding. "I never ran away nor intended to run away and any suggestion that I did is untrue."

Is Shocked

Marcelle said he was "shocked to learn that my departure from Washington has created a most incredible situation." When he learned of it, he said, he contacted the subcommittee and accepted its subpena.

Chairman King (D-Calif) of the subcommittee had accused Mar-

FACING ARRAIGNMENT on charges of embezzling $338,901.10 are three officers of the Kaufmann Store Employes's Federal Credit Union of Pittsburgh, John J. Cain, 45, treasurer (far left); Joseph B. Campbell, 56, vice president (second from right) and Mrs. Nana Nicol, 31, assistant treasurer (far right). Two unidentified FBI agents sit in the background. The three officers are charged with issuing checks for fictitious loans. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover says the arrests represent the eighth major embezzlement case in the Pittsburgh area within the last three months.

3 In Pittsburgh Charged With Embezzlement

FBI Holds 2 Men, Woman in Credit Union Shortage

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 25—(AP)—The FBI arrested three officials of a big department store credit union yesterday and charged them with embezzling $338,901.10.

Special agent Fred Hallford, in charge of the Pittsburgh FBI office, said those arrested are Joseph B. Campbell, 56, vice president of the Kaufmann Store employes' federal credit union; John J. Cain, 45, treasurer; and Mrs. Nana Nicoll, 31, assistant treasurer and office manager.

Hallford quoted Cain as saying he used the embezzled money to "finance lost weekends" during the latter part of 1944 to early 1948. Campbell also admitted, Hallford declared, embezzling for good times. Mrs. Nicoll, now on sick leave, told Hallford she did not share in the proceeds derived from making fictitious loans. She said her part was completion of mere business transactions for Cain.

The FBI said irregularities in the books were discovered during a routine examination earlier this month by the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions, operated by the Federal Security Agency. The Pittsburgh union is affiliated with it. The Union handles private funds.

Mrs. Joseph Pipicunas fought an oil furnace fire with a garden hose and had it almost extinguished by the time Marion firemen arrived at the Pipicunas home on Bryant street, north of the city limits yesterday.

Fire Chief Owen Sifritt reported that the fire started when oil leaked from an oil furnace beneath the ground floor of the house, and ignited. Minor damage was reported.

Firemen from the Central and East Mark street stations answered the call at 4:33 p. m.

Cost of Living Seen Going Up

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25—(AP)—Your cost of living is going up if you buy such things as cigarets, gasoline, a clothes drier, a set of golf clubs, a fountain pen.

You can live a little more cheaply, however, if your purchases run more to such items as baby powder, a house trailer to hook on behind your car, or a ticket to the non-profit county fair.

That's the dollars-and-cents meaning of the $1,200,000,000 boost in excise taxes which starts to affect your pocketbook next Thursday—a week from today.

For instance, there's a new 10 percent tax on many household appliances: door chimes, dishwashers, floor waxers, power lawn mowers and others.

In addition, there's higher tax on a number of things which were taxed already.

Government price fixers will announce any day now how much of this increase can be passed on to the buyer. Probably it will go something like this:

You'll pay a penny more for cigarets, 26 to 50 cents more for a fifth of whisky (if you use it), a cent more for a fifth of dry wine, two cents more for a fifth of port or sherry. You may get nicked an extra cent for a bottle of beer.

On longer-lasting items, the increase will be substantial. A new car, truck or motorcycle—as well as parts and accessories for all of these—will take three cents more in every dollar.

Auto Dealer Summoned To Court Martial

TOLEDO, Oct. 25—(AP)—A general court martial summoned Harold E. Hertzfeld back to the stand today to tell what he knows about any automobiles sold to Col. Shirley W. McIlwain.

Col. McIlwain is being tried on charges that he bought two Oldsmobiles and a Cadillac coupe for his personal use at heavy discounts from Hertzfeld's firm, the Hertzfeld Oldsmobile Co. of Toledo.

At the time, McIlwain was commanding officer of the Rossford Ordnance Depot. The prosecution brought out from a witness yesterday that Hertzfeld's auto parts business with Rossford jumped from $34,700 to $408,202 while the colonel was in charge. McIlwain has since been relieved.

Although McIlwain is charged with buying three cars, the court yesterday told Hertzfeld to bring back records of six auto sales to McIlwain.

Hertzfeld will be the prosecution's last witness regarding the autos. The prosecutor will call four witnesses in an attempt to prove the other main charge, that McIlwain solicited free liquor from firms doing defense work for a party at the depot.

Yesterday's chief witnesses were Arthur H. Knake, the depot's purchasing and contract officer, and Arthur M. Lockwood, the finance officer. Both are civilians.

They said that Hertzfeld's business with the Army had jumped since 1949. However, they also testified that Col. McIlwain had never attempted to influence their decisions in favor of Hertzfeld.

TOGETHER AT LAST

ADRIAN, Mich.—(UP)—Two childhood sweethearts were married in Adrian recently after a delay in plans. When the knot finally was tied, Theodore McKimmy was 86 and his bride, Mrs. Nellie Mitchell, was 83. Nevada's Indian Caves Give Modern Wedding Music

BAKER, Nev. (UP)—The Lehman Cave National Monument, underlying the flank of the highest mountain in Nevada, has been developed into one of the most interesting units of the national park system.

The vast intricate cavern chain has been under federal supervision since 1922, about 50 years after a homesteader, Absalom Lehman, discovered the caves when his horse fell into an opening that proved to be a natural entrance to the system.

Lehman was not the first human to visit the caves that now bear his name. Exploration parties found skeletons, wrapped in garments of long-extinct Indian tribes, which proved the caves had been utilized by pre-historic redmen as a burial chamber.

The caves, about 250 miles southwest of Salt Lake City, are now visited by about 20,000 tourists a year.

He "Music Hall"

John Fielding, guide who's been showing visitors through the caverns since 1942, thinks the most unusual feature of the formations along a 1,00 foot trail is "music hall."

There, stalactites dropping down from the cave roof and stalagmites building up from the floor have formed various size columns that—when struck—produce perfect musical tones covering a wide range.

"We've had three real weddings down here in Lehman Caves," Fielding said, "and the pipes are so realistic that the wedding marches were played on them."

In other places, the stone formation is ripped until it resembles stage curtains. One variety of stalactite is so thin and multi-colored that guides have dubbed it "bacon."

Sound Like Drums

Fielding said the "tom-tom" formations of Lehman Caves have never been, to geologists' knowledge, duplicated in other caverns.

They are circular patterns suspended from the roof, naturally cemented to the walls, or raised slightly from the floor and when struck resound like a drum.

One cavern boasts a "popcorn field"—tiny crystals of a buff color that formed in a nodular shape on a slanting bank of limestone.

Lehman caves were formed over the ages under the north flank of Wheeler Peak, of 13,058 feet elevation. The peak is part of the Snake range along the Utah-Nevada border.

Hiker Stumbles On Rare Find

CHICAGO, Ill. — (UP) — Hundreds of fishermen, campers and hikers had stumbled over a rock at Pistakee Lake, but it remained for Adrian Puls to recognize it as an archaeological discovery.

Puls visited the resort area 55 miles northwest of Chicago, stumbled on the rock and recognized it as a 300-pound lump of copper brought down from the huge copper fields of the north by the last big glacier.

He dug it up, managed to get it into his car and brought it home.

Puls, an amatuer archaeologist for about 25 years, said it was from such copper that Indians who once inhabited the Chicago area fashioned their arrowheads and tools.

Originally hari-kari was a method of suicide permitted noble offenders in feudal Japan, but later became the national form of honorable suicide.

No One Bosses Labor

HARRY BRIDGES, the convicted perjurer who is running at large on $25,000 bail to stir up trouble among dock workers, would like to believe he has enough power to paralyze the United States. That would make no difference to him because he is an alien, he committed his act of perjury for swearing that he never had been a Communist while making an application for citizenship papers.

The question among dock workers and other unionized members of the shipping trades is now what it has been since Harry Bridges began to throw his weight around under the warm encouragement of the New Deal—whether or not this man who never has been known to deviate from Kremlin policy could be hammered down to size in a country which lets people like him have a free rein.

It could happen, aside from some slip which would land him in jail, only if his own followers finally realized what he was up to and deserted him. That has not happened yet, but the fact the New York dock strikers are breaking ranks is a sign that Harry Bridges still cannot paralyze the United States. He can cripple it, but he can't destroy it—yet.

Slow Leak

IT OCCURRED suddenly to many thousands who would rather not think about it the other day when the stock market developed a slow leak that this is one way the country might have to cope with the problem of inflation.

The cure would be worse than the disease. The last time it happened, what started out as a slow leak turned into a blowout without warning and toppled the inflationary spiral into the ditch. It stayed there, spinning upside down, until World War II set off a price boom.

World War I had set off a boom, too. Except for a period of uncertainty in the early twenties, that boom kept boosting prices a little further out of the common man's reach until the whole crazy situation blew up in October, 1929.

A selling avalanche in the stock market let out better than $20,000,000,000 of inflationary pressure in a fortnight. At the low point of the depression, in midsummer of 1932, securities values had dropped to less than $16,000,000,000 from an inflationary high of $90,000,000,000 before the historic blowout in October, 1929.

Fortunately, say the experts, this could not happen again. The government, they say, has made it impossible. Inflation, they contend, is here to stay this time. But it takes only a suggestion of escaping pressure to make even the experts wonder if they might be wrong.

Permanent Court of Ethics

JUST before Congress adjourned, a Senate subcommittee made some high-minded proposals to lift the moral standards of government. They were lost in the shuffle.

Nothing will come of them for the simple reason that congressmen cannot change the system which sustains them. For example, the chairman of the subcommittee was Paul Douglas of Illinois, a Democrat who won election in 1948 with the support of President Truman and the Democratic machine in a pivotal state. In 1942, when Douglas ran for the same job with neither the support of the head of the party nor the Democratic machine, he never reached first base. Does Senator Douglas really believe the moral standards of government can be raised without the consent and cooperation of the people who have pulled them down? Does he really believe Pendergastism can be eradicated by the Pendergasters?

One of the subcommittee's proposals is for a permanent court of ethics, to hear disputes and hand down judgments. That would be a rare agency of government indeed—but a poor substitute for the principles which honorable men uphold as a matter of individual pride.

There is only one way to lift the moral standards of government. That is to equip the machinery of government with personnel whose moral standards have not deteriorated.

Depths of Ignorance

IF THERE is one place in the automobile age where ignorance does mischief beyond the ordinary, it is in misguided ideas about traffic.

A study just concluded by the California highway department has revealed that business and land values increased in five cities which rerouted through traffic to relieve downtown congestion. Merchandising revenue responded inversely to the decrease of automobiles—and for an obvious reason:

Shoppers who wanted to spend their money were able to reach the downtown stores when through traffic was rerouted around the business section. Everybody was better off—the merchants, the shoppers and the drivers of the vehicles passing through the five California cities.

One of the most jealously-guarded of all pet ideas about traffic has been that a lot of it was good for abutting business properties. Skeptics have guessed for years that in many instances the exact opposite was true—that through traffic was bad for business because it crowded out potential local buyers.

Taft Managers Pleased

By David Lawrence

See Favorable Results From Early Announcement

WASHINGTON

THERE is a feeling of satisfaction among Taft managers today that the momentum their leader will have attained by his early announcement of candidacy will tend to discourage the drive toward Eisenhower.

The tendency among the Taft adherents is not to say anything unfavorable about the possible Eisenhower candidacy but to emphasize the probability that the supreme commander in Europe will be detained by developments there anyhow and would not be in a position to come back for a political campaign. They say the Democrats would be the first to raise the cry that Eisenhower was "deserting his job."

LAWRENCE

If, on the other hand, it is true—as reported by recent callers in Paris—that the General isn't really interested in seeking any nomination and will deal with a "draft" only if it arises, there is little chance, in the opinion of Taft men, that any considerable number of Republican delegates will wait until next June to find out whether they are to be part of a minority faction or group or part of a majority.

Political history on the subject of the "draft" indicates that it takes a decided sentiment to bring one about and that, if anybody else is strong enough to come near a majority, he can readily dispose of the "dark horses" or the candidates who might be subject to a "draft."

THERE HAVE BEEN cases of an artificial "draft," but the only real "draft" occurred in 1916 when Charles Evans Hughes, then a supreme court justice, was nominated by the Republicans. This correspondent saw Mr. Hughes frequently in those pre-convention days, carrying to him for purposes of news comment dispatches that were coming in from different parts of the country where his name was being put on a primary ballot or where self-appointed managers were striving to line up delegates under a Hughes banner. The justice said again and again that he would do everything in his power to discourage a "draft." He refused to permit his name to be used on primary ballots. He repudiated publicly the late Frank Hitchcock, who announced himself as a Hughes manager. Hitchcock had been postmaster general in President Theodore Roosevelt's cabinet and was one of the ablest political organizers of the day.

"I've done everything I could to discourage the draft," Mr. Hughes said to this writer in confidence one day, "and I don't think therefore I shall be nominated. This has never happened before and it can't happen because I have not permitted any delegates to represent me at the convention."

MR. HUGHES WAS sincere about it and really didn't believe he would be nominated. William Howard Taft, who was an ex-president in 1916, elicited a promise from Justice Hughes a few days before the convention to say nothing as to whether or not he would accept until he was confronted with such a concrete proposal. Mr. Hughes could not do otherwise, because to say ahead of time that he would not accept would have been to participate in the nomination struggle by answering a hypothetical question. Mr. Hughes had in mind declining but after the convention he was closeted with former President Taft for many hours and listened to the argument that it was his patriotic duty to run because at that time World War I had begun and the country was far from united on what the American course should be toward participation in the war.

The situation today with respect to Gen. Eisenhower is not parallel except that there were strong candidates in 1916, too, as there is a strong candidate in the person of Senator Taft today. One thing is clear: the Ohio senator has only one possible opponent now, and that's General Eisenhower.

IF, THEREFORE, between now and next June when the convention is held, Senator Taft is able to win what appears to be a majority support among Republicans, there will be less and less talk of drafting Eisenhower. This was precisely the objective of the Taft group in announcing the Taft candidacy early.

It could happen that, if President Truman decides not to run and Senator Taft becomes the Republican nominee, the "draft Eisenhower" idea would spring up in the Democratic party. For the Democrats hold their convention after the Republicans. General Eisenhower had quite a following for the Democratic nomination in 1948 and it would not be surprising if the same thing developed again in the event that the Republicans do not nominate him in 1952.

Long Live the Queens

By TRUMAN TWILL

THIS IS the only republic in history with a queen for every hundred souls, and this is their coronation season. Long live America's queens!

Week after week during fall football schedules they don regal robes, climb in the back seat of a shined-up convertible, get hauled to a central point and are crowned with fitting ceremony by the class president, a down-to-earth official with no pretentions to royalty whatsoever.

In additional ceremonies which go with the process of coronation, the queens sit on platforms at public gatherings, pose for pictures which will appear in the press and go through a gracious routine of regal gestures for newsreel cameramen if their realms happen to be big enough to justify the full publicity treatment.

Under no circumstances are these football, or homecoming, queens to be confused with another class of queens, also common, who do their queening for profit. These are the apple, cherry, doughnut, rubber, orange, rose, cabbage, plastics and packaged foods queens whose queenliness is exploited by profit-making organizations. The homecoming queen is in another league of monarchy. She is an amateur.

She is the girl who, in the opinion of her contemporaries, comes closest to being the kind of girl that all the other girls and all the boys admire the most. If it were possible to have a queen roundup in this country and assemble all the captured dollies in one place, the gathering would be the cream of the girl crop.

This is an admission that just looking at the faces of these kids as they appear from year to year is an autumn tonic—a stimulating reminder that even though a lot of other things are going to the dogs the young women of America are just as good looking as they ever were, maybe better.

Moreover, casual though expert observation indicates they are just as charming as they ever were, too, and maybe more so, because they seem to be gaining ground in some respects, such as being better informed about the world they live in.

Homecoming queens, probably think back on their day of glory as the years pass, wondering sometimes whether or not they lived up to their great expectations. Be that as it may, and constitutional monarchs with royal blood lines have their moments of doubt, too, the queens are good for what ails all the rest of us.

Their pretty faces and the knowledge that they usually have personalities to match the faces make it easy to believe most of what's wrong with these out-of-joint times can be traced to misplaced emphasis. Is it really a greater matter of concern that some cluck who has been headed for trouble all his life finally found it than that some good-looking teen-ager with blue sky in her eyes has been chosen by her schoolmates as homecoming queen of Crossroads High and will be duly crowned and feted the afternoon and evening of the annual game with Armageddon Local?

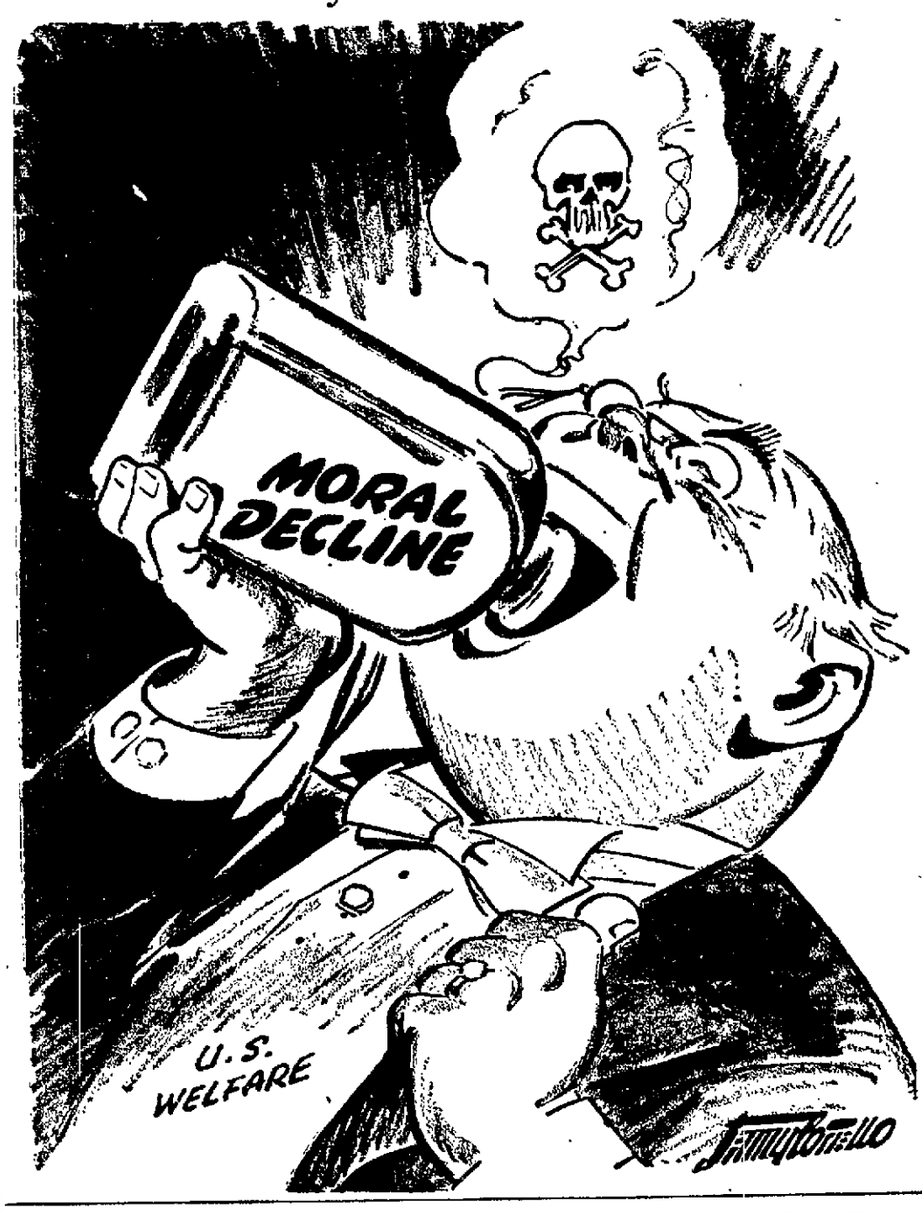
Hey! That's Poison



An Interview With Old King Coal

By Harold W. Ward

JOHN L. LEWIS, America's No. 1 coal miner, thinks coal is still king of industry and that it will be a long time before atomic energy displaces it.

The leader of the 400,000 soft coal and 80,000 hard coal miner members of the United Mine Workers of America thinks Britain's economic plight might have been avoided if it could dig coal faster.

The threatened expulsion of British interests from Egypt and Iran, and even the loss of India, might not have occurred had Britain been economically stronger at home, suggests this son of a Welsh coal miner.

If Britain could turn out another 200,000,000 tons of coal a year, its economic security would be assured, Lewis suggests. It has the coal in the ground.

The U. S. has enough coal to last several hundred years and knows how to get it out of the earth at an average rate of seven tons a day per man for bituminous and about three tons a day for hard coal.

Britain, on the other hand, gets about one ton of bituminous coal a day from each of its 750,000 diggers. Union policy has been partly responsible, Lewis says. The U.M.W. has encouraged mechanization, but the British coal miners union in the past has opposed it.

Lewis has talked these issues over with British coal mine union and industry representatives both here and in London.

In conversations with Lewis one gets the idea this is his favorite topic—the future of the coal industry and the importance it may play in keeping the U. S. economically sound.

"This country, and the world, are still on a coal economy," he said in an exclusive interview. "Atomic energy will not be a competitive power threat for many years to come, because we have had to devote almost all atomic research to military uses. And that will continue for sometime."

LEWIS POINTS OUT, too, that supplies of uranium, on which mastery of the atom has depended in experiments to date, are extremely scarce.

Even water power is insufficient to constitute a real threat to coal for industrial purposes, Lewis contends. The water just isn't there when you need it most, he says, and that's why steam stand-by plants, geared to coal, have had to be constructed at major power dams.

"The United Mine Workers did not oppose the Tennessee Valley Authority, for example, because we thought then that it would ultimately make more customers for coal," said Lewis. "That has been abundantly proven."

As with atomic energy, the military demands for oil also cut down the threat of petroleum as an industrial competitor to coal. Scientists must concentrate on the powering of military machines because of the state of world affairs.

Lewis is confident that coal is the industrial fuel of today and the foreseeable tomorrow.

IN PROMOTING development of modern coal-producing equipment, Lewis and his union have made the big pitch on getting the miner a share in the higher yield from increased output. Today the U. S. coal miner receives a base daily rate of $16.35, more than $2 an hour.

Constant pressure for higher wages has, in Lewis' opinion, forced the coal operator to mechanize to get more and more coal out of his property, and the result has been more and more efficient mining.

In some Illinois mines, coal digging and cutting equipment is so effective that the daily output sometimes hits the seemingly unbelievable figure of 70 tons a day per man. When coal can be taken out from the surface with the use of bulldozers and similar equipment, production likewise soars.

Lewis thinks that, while the Diesel railroad engine has set coal back in this one-time monopoly field, the development of the coal-burning gas turbine engine will revolutionize the locomotive.

ONLY A COUPLE of "bugs" in research and experiments on this type engine—at Dunkirk, N. Y., and elsewhere—are keeping the coal-powered gas turbine locomotive off the market, Lewis, the National Coal Association and railroad executives all agree that when it is perfected it should provide the fuel answer for two great industries: Coal and railroads.

Lewis says his members mine 95 percent of the coal produced in the nation.

There are non-union mines, and they are increasing in number and output. Non-union coal can sell at least 30 cents a ton cheaper than the union product, because that amount is collected from unionized operators to finance the U.M.W. welfare and retirement fund of $150,000,000 a year.

Benefits available to union miners from this fund, however, are a powerful argument to miners to join the union.

Lewis doesn't think non-union mines are much threat to the U. M.W., for these reasons:

1. Where they are concentrated, as in some counties of Kentucky, the union is putting up a big fight to organize them—punctuated by shootings and million-dollar damage suits against non-union companies and some sheriffs who Lewis says are too friendly to them.

2. Coal from non-union mines often is of an inferior grade and can't compete for the best markets, even at a lower price.

3. A majority of non-union pits are small openings mined by families or community groups, and the coal largely is used locally. It wouldn't pay the union to try to organize them.

The big operators with costly union contracts are anxious for Lewis to bring all non-union pits into his orbit because it helps eliminate price-cutting.

Congress Quiz

Q—What can bring Congress back to Washington after it has adjourned?

A—Only the President can call it back, by ordering a special session. However, a Congress itself, at the time it decides to adjourn, can set a special date for reassembling in order to wind up unfinished business. In any event, the present Congress will return to the Capitol Jan. 3, 1952, to start the second session.

Q—What has Congress done about the proposed St. Lawrence seaway?

A—A House committee held hearings, but in July voted to table (kill) a bill for the project. Some committeemen then pushed for reconsideration, and another hearing was held in October, but a vote was postponed until 1952.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

What? Another Code?

Here we go again! The airwaves are to be cleaned up. This time the announcement comes from the television operators. (Boy, dig into the files and let us know how many years ago radio made the same announcement.) "Obscenity, smut and vulgarity" are to be barred from entertainment now flashed on the family fireside screen the video magnates say. "No acts or lines touching on abnormalities will be acceptable." But what's to become of all those video comics, including a half dozen of the highest paid, should the rules be enforced?

PHILLIPS

Abnormalities are currently regarded by some of the most famous comedians as top subjects for good clean fun for mommer, popper and the kiddies. During the past few nights the video fans saw two highly exploited comics, sponsored by great industries, behave as if there was nothing so funny in the American home as the female impersonator, the freak of nature, the mah hands-on-hips character and the pathetic biological problem case. The more exploited the comedian, the greater liberty allowed for his vulgarities. There are now three kinds of television: black and white, color and OFF-COLOR. The off-color has been steadily on the rise. Up to the invention of radio, and more especially video, the American home was well protected from the mood of the gent's smoker, the stag party, the honky-tonk and the anything-goes type of performer. But today the old homestead is wide open from nursery to grandpa's room. Any sincere concern for the home would result in a swift clean-up. But out in Chicago the National Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters goes into the old familiar "Let's get up a code" routine. With a straight face, too. (And no introductory ballet entitled "Dance of the Insincerities"! or "The Applesauce Waltz.")

Get a load of the code! It bars:

1—Any presentation of crime by techniques that make imitation easy. (We heard this one before.)

2—The use of horror for its own sake. (Just for the sake of the soap powder, understand?)

3—Any script that is excessively violent and creates a morbid suspense among children. (What! Ya mean you would cancel three 234 current programs, representing the very backbone of video entertainment?)

4—Sex crimes, illicit sex relations, lewd movements, etc. (Pardon our yawning.)

5—Presentation of crime in a frivolous, cynical or callous manner, which is unacceptable. (Unacceptable at the front door, that is. Just leave it on the back steps and run like everything, boy!)

6—The casual treatment of divorce. (Does the man mean the commercial must show the couple Reno-bound in larger sedans?)

Took one whole year, 12 full months, to draw up the code, too, says Harold E. Fellows, president of the broadcasters. Well, he's entitled to his laugh too. (But not from us.) A half hour seriously devoted to a talk between the video chiefs, the radio ad men and the sponsors (assuming they ever had children or go around in circles where they were to be found) would be more than enough time in which to protect the home and fireside from the stuff that is the plain answer to "What do you suppose is the matter with our children these days?" Half hour my eye! Fifteen minutes would do it, if they really cared.

IN VIEW of the amazing manner of teen-age babysitters the current question is where to get a sitter to watch the sitter. . . . "Lockaby baby, for you I fear; Mommer's gone out and the sitter is NEAR!" . . . General Electric showing an astounding drop in profit through taxes, says only 5 cents out of each sales dollar is left for stockholders. . . . And it costs $1.50 for the stockholders to buy a flashlight to find the dividend! . . . The Sphinx has started to talk and its first words appear to be "Scram!" . . . The U.N. not only didn't help solve England's oil problem but didn't even offer to check the battery and wipe the windshield. . . . "Landlord" won a race at $11.60. . . . Shudda Hadda won on him but still refused to pay the rent. . . . Bob Hope makes the mistake of thinking the lusty gags that make top sergeants laugh are just the thing for home and fireside. . . .

Miss Sarnoff is singing 'Getting to Know You," a musical hint for U.N. people.

Marion Garden Center Notes

PERPETUATING GERANIUMS

All plants need a season of comparative rest. When they have bloomed all summer they are just plain tired. To pot them, the root system must be pruned. This necessitates pruning the tops as well. Since this is a shock to the plant, it will take them some time to recover before they are ready to bloom in the house.

The plants should be potted and cut back to about three inches of growth on three main stems. Leave them outdoors in a shaded spot and bring them into a sunny window just before frost. Give them little water and no fertilizer until they indicate by the appearance of new leaves that they have become readjusted They should bloom the latter part of February or early March.

Some people have good luck keeping their geraniums over winter in the basement. The potted plants are set in the coolest spot near a window. Water them sparingly throughout the winter.

When April comes soak the pots in a tub of water, drain, set in a cool bedroom window where they will get plenty of light. Expose them to sunlight gradually. Put them outdoors on Decoration Day. The easiest way to perpetuate the geraniums is to make cuttings laterally about three inches long just below a node. This cutting will root easily in sand which is kept moist.

POSTAL GROUP MEETING

The first meeting of the Postal Transport Association for the 1951-1952 season was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin C. Rouse of 638 Windsor street. Thirty members and six guests, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Irwin, Miss Barbara Jeffries, and Mr. and Mrs. Erbin Snell and daughter, were present.

After separate business meetings for the men and women, the groups joined for a potluck supper. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs Clarence Willey on Girard avenue.

Today's Fashion Flash

NEW YORK

AT JEWELRY counters, as at theaters, it's the "double features" that will draw crowds!

A Paris-precious gem designer, Madame Reine, has opened a fabulous salon in New York and demonstrated that jewelry can be as versatile as the best convertible fashion.

Top practical fashion in her collection is a pair of two and one-half inch long diamond clips. They are so constructed that they can be dangled from a choker necklace, fastened to either side of a decollete, or clamped together at either end to make a bracelet

There also are brilliant rings that can be snapped into place on either finger or ear . . . long barette-brooches that can be used at either neckline or hairline . . and a modest little necklace of baguette daimonds that can be inserted in a wrist-fitting frame of platinum, snapped in place and worn as a snake bracelet.

Madame Reine's creations were all made of genuine gems.

But experts agreed that within months the "double feature" idea will be copied as $2.98 masterpieces of versatility!

Indiana Solon Calls His Coup Great Victory

Opens Welfare Rolls To Public View Within States

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 25—(AP)—Indiana's junior U. S. senator calls his coup which makes possible the opening of welfare rolls to public inspection "the people's greatest victory over federal bureaucracy in 20 years"

Sen William E. Jenner is a Republican with a sharp tongue when he starts on the subject of "federal bureaucracy" It was he who maneuvered into the big tax bill a rider giving states the right to let the public look at lists of persons on public welfare.

"This is the first time the New Deal has been given a good swift kick in the teeth," Jenner said in an interview.

"The bureaucrats fought it until hell wouldn't have it, but they were repulsed in what was primarily a battle of state's rights. It marked the first time in 20 years that the trend toward big government in Washington has been reversed.

First Victory

"It was the first victory in bringing government back to the people from Washington, where a bureaucrat, not elected by the people, has been able to set himself up as a dictator and tell the people what to do"

The Jenner rider got Indiana out of a dilemma created when another native Hoosier, Oscar Ewing, federal security administrator, lopped off the federal aid that had been going to the state in meeting public welfare expense.

Ewing did so on the ground that a law passed by the 1951 Indiana legislature conflicted with the federal social security law banning publicizing of welfare rolls.

With Indiana cut off from $20,000,000 annually in federal aid, Democratic Governor Henry F. Schricker called the legislature into special session to deal with the problem.

The session opened Sept. 24 and it is still continuing, although the legislators admit welfare is pretty much of a moot question since Jenner made his fast play.

Year's Total 3,217 Acres

New Record Set in Ohio Mine Land Reclamation

Another banner year of strip land reclamation, exceeding that of last year by 592 acres, has been announced by Larry Cook, director of the Ohio Reclamation Association, in his report on strip mine reclamation activities for this spring

A total of 3,217 acres of the land stripped for coal and other minerals was reclaimed this year by the Association for sixty-eight of its members or by the member companies themselves 1,642,800 trees were planted on 1 776 acres and 1,441 acres were seeded to grasses and forage crops This brings the total number of trees planted by the association since its organization in 1945 to 7,471,-675, the acres seeded to 8,608 and the acres reclaimed to 16,934 acres All strip lands reclaimed this year were graded to conform with the law previous to planting and all reclamation was paid for by the strip land operators

In addition to the plantings several lakes have been started and stocked with fish in the reclaimed strip land areas during the past year Largest of these was the one adjoining the new Hanna Coal Company cleaning plant south of Cadiz

Spring Plantings

Trees planted this spring comprise saw timber, post and Christmas trees species, including tulip, sycamore, chestnut oak, white oak, black locust, red, white, jack, pitch Australian and Scotch pine, douglas fir, Norway spruce and red cedar Plantings of multiflora rose Japanese larch, tatarian honeysuckle, Russian mulberry, anl bicolor and intermedia lespedeza were made mostly on an experimental basis for game food Of the 1,642,800 trees planted 970,272 were purchased from the nurseries of the Ohio Division of Forestry, the balance being obtained from nurseries in Wisconsin, Michigan, Tennessee, Missouri, Pennsylvania and Indiana

Grass and forage crop seedings were made in fourteen different mixtures, varying in amounts from twelve to twenty pounds per acre, to conform to the soil analysis of the areas seeded Species used were alsike, white sweet, yellow, red, white Dutch and ladino clover serician and Korean lespedeza, alta and Kentucky 31 fescue, orchard grass, timothy, red top, birdsfoot trefoil, ranger alfalfa and hubam

100 Operators in Project

This report of the Ohio Reclamation Association includes the reclamation activities of approximately one hundred of the strip mine operators in Ohio It is the only organization of the producers of coal and other minerals by strip mining devoted to the rehabilitation of strip lands It maintains an executive office in Cleveland and feild offices and soils laboratory at Cadiz

Show Profits Lagging Behind 1950

Industry Reports On 3rd Quarter Hit Stock Market

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK, Oct. 25—(AP)—Sharp breaks in the stock market focus attention today on corporate profit statements now pouring in. Some market observers say poor earning reports are one of the factors. Early earnings returns show three things:

1. A large proportion of the corporations aren't giving out third quarter statements, but are reporting only for the nine months period through Sept. 30—with some people guessing this could be because the third quarter looks particularly poor.

2. There is a wide variation in how the new and higher tax is being handled by accountants — a few putting all of the increase in the third quarter, some spreading it out over the year, some waiting till the end of the year to adjust it—so that third quarter earnings statements may not be all that they seem, either on the good or bad side.

3. Companies giving third quarter reports show — with a few notable exceptions — that in July, August and September corporations were making much lower net earnings than year ago, and much lower than in the first part of this year.

BUT ALL THIS had been expected. In the first place, the summer quarter is traditionally the lowest earning quarter for most companies. The fourth quarter is traditionally the best, and we're in that now.

And this year has been erratic. The first quarter showed most companies doing better than in the first three months of 1950. In the second quarter they dropped below a year ago. Everyone expected the third quarter to show a larger drop—increased material and labor costs, higher taxes, material shortages hampering production, price ceilings and controls squeezing profits.

Inventories played their part. In the first quarter the profit from selling low-cost inventories on a rising market accounted for $2 billion of corporate earnings, the Department of Commerce estimates. Just the reverse this summer, when high-cost over-stuffed inventories were a loss on a falling market.

Of 27 companies reporting both the three months and the nine months profits, only six showed this summer better than last and these and three others showed the year so far running ahead of last.

SOME COMPANIES did better in the third quarter than they did for the entire nine months—or, at least, if earnings fell behand a year ago, the drop was less than for the nine month period. Among these are General Portland Cement, United Paramount Theatre, Industrial Rayon, Sloss-Scheffield Steel & Iron.

For some companies earnings dropped in the third quarter at about the same rate as for the nine months. Examples are Howe Sound and Standard Steel Spring. In the case of Johns-Manville both the quarter and the nine months period showed earnings higher than last year, by about the same percentage.

Five other companies reported gains over last year in both the quarter and the nine months, but the longer period showed much the greater gain, and the quarter pace was much slower. These are American Woolen, Plymouth Oil, Underwood, Hanna Co., and Cleveland-Cliffs Iron.

But most companies reporting early show that the third quarter was worse than the nine months—so much worse as to cancel out good first quarter earnings and show the year so far running well behind 1950.

Old Ticket Doesn't Fool Delaware Police

DELAWARE, O., Oct. 25—(AP)—"Auto, police, parking ticket"—like clothes in a washer, those thoughts tumbled over William McDevitt's mind. His auto stood by a parking meter.

Then he got an idea. He dug out an old parking ticket, dated Oct. 13, and stuck it under his windshield wiper. With luck, police would think he'd already been tagged for the violation.

They didn't—and yesterday the Ohio Wesleyan sophomore paid a $15 fine for fraud.

RESERVE CHAMPION HIGH POINT HORSE OF OHIO, Silver Tomahawk's Illusion, named at the Western Horse show Sunday, is shown with its co-owners, Mrs. June Rowe of Bucyrus, in the saddle, and Miss Frances Baca of Columbus, holding the trophy awarded by Marion Kaiser-Frazer Motors. At left is R. L. Stebbin of Marion, a partner in the Marion Motors business, who made the presentation, and at right is the ringmaster, Ed Hancox.

bases, the subcommittee was critical of what it called a "lack of cost consciousness" among officers at the six centers.

Wastes

This factor "involves waste—waste in manpower and waste in money—and at this critical juncture the nation can afford neither," the subcommittee said.

As an example of low morale and waste of manpower, the report cited a staff sergeant, an inactive reservist recalled to duty, whose full time job at El Toro is to issue equipment at a golf course.

"It would be impossible to convince this man that he was really needed and that there was sufficient cause to recall him to active duty," the report said.

The senators recommended that the Navy include in its fitness reports for officers a new category, "cost consciousness."

"An important factor in the determination of an officer's efficiency should be his demonstrated ability to conserve men, money and materials," the report said.

to scrap the agreement and get a 25-cent hourly wage raise.

Ryan's contention that the new contract was approved by a two-to-one vote among 65,000 longshoremen from Maine to Virginia is disputed by the dissident group.

The greatest altitude at which men can live without wearing an oxygen mask varies considerably, depending upon one's physical condition and the length of his stay at the high altitude, but above 15,000-20,000 feet the oxygen in the air is not sufficient to maintain life.

OHIO HUNTER KILLED

THE FORKS, Me., Oct. 25—(AP)—A young Milford, Ohio, sportsman is the first victim of Maine's 1951 deer hunting season. An autopsy was scheduled today on the body of Thomas E. Robinson, 25, shot through the head while tramping a woods trail yesterday with a hunting companion. Identity of the shooter is not known.

Pushes For Loans Probe

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 —(AP)—Senator Nixon (R-Calif) called today for a full-scale inquiry and public hearings to bring out all the facts about any government loan activities of Mrs. Flo Bratten and Charles D. Shaver.

Shaver submitted his resignation yesterday as counsel for the Senate small business committee. Chairman Sparkman (D-Ala) accepted it promptly.

Shaver has said that Mrs. Bratten, secretary to vice president Barkley, joined him in making visits to officials of the the Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC) to ask about more than a million dollars in federal loans.

Both of them denied, however, that they exerted any influence in connection with the loans.

Both already have been questioned in a preliminary inquiry by the Senate investigations subcommittee, but Nixon told reporters that only "a thorough public investigation will clear up the situation." Nixon is a member of the committee.

Barkley said at a news conference yesterday, after talking privately with Mrs. Bratten, that he already had notified Chairman Hoey (D-N C) he would cooperate fully in any investigation undertaken by the subcommittee. Mrs. Bratten has worked for Barkley 26 years.

Elks Pledge Million Pints Of Blood

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Oct. 25—(AP)—Elks lodges throughout the nation will pledge 1,000,000 pints of blood for use in the national emergency.

Howard R. Davis, grand exalted ruler of the B.P.O.E. made the announcement here last night at a testimonial dinner in his honor at his home lodge, Williamsport Lodge No. 173.

Davis said he will meet on Friday with Secretary of Defense Robert A. Lovett in Washington to present the official blood donation pledge of the 1,600 Elks lodges in the United States.

Plans for giving blood will be made by Marion Lodge of Elks tonight at the regular lodge meeting, Robert Haldeman, exalted ruler, reported today.

Election

said the total vote might exceed even the record set last year when 28,769,477 (85 percent) of the nearly 35,000,000 registered voters cast ballots.

They based this forecast on the fact that both parties have conducted intensive drives to get out the vote and on the belief that the fundamental issues of the election have become so fiercely controversial that few ballots would go unused today.

Even after the polls opened, teams from both parties continued to go from house to house, asking people if they had voted and offering transportation to the polls.

King To Wait Up

From Buckingham Palace came word that King George VI, still recuperating from a major lung operation, will remain awake until midnight tonight to get election results. His doctors have sanctioned the late hour for this occasion.

Election-reording boards were set up in Piccadilly Circus and in other gathering points by London newspapers.

As the polls opened, both major parties issued confident statements predicting victory. Public opinion surveys ended with the Conservatives still on top in graphs and charts—but with the lead over labor greatly narrowed in the final hours.

Both parties were contending hotly for the Liberal vote. The Liberals—Britain's third force—number some 2,000,000 voters, but have put up candidates in only a few districts.

Restate Issues

Final messages from both Churchill and Prime Minister Attlee tersely rephrased the central issues. These were:

1. Whether to continue the vast Socialist experiment in state control over business and industry or whether to restore the Conservatives and return as far as possible to a system devoted to private enterprise.

2. Whether to bring back Churchill, on whom the Socialists have attempted to pin the label "warmonger" and who, they warn, would pursue a line of policy that easily could lead to war.

JAWS OF MERCY. Wounded soldiers are brought down ramps leading from interior of the giant Globemaster at an air base in Japan after being evacuated from Korea. The huge C-124 brought 160 wounded U.N. soldiers from the battle area in a record flight.

Marion Man Charged In Hotel Fight

Marcus Z. Dunlap, 38, who gave his address as Marion, got a rude awaking yesterday following his return to the United States after a six-month work period on a U.S. Air Force base in Greenland, The Associated Press reported.

He was arrested in Springfield, Mass., and charged with dangerous assault following an early morning fight in a Springfield hotel in which a Pound, Va., man sustained a fractured skull when hit with a water pitcher.

Dunlap pleaded not guilty to the charge and is being held on $5,000 bail. A hearing has been set for Nov. 2.

The fight was a sidelight on a big payoff and celebration precipitated when 150 pleasure-starved construction workers were returned to the United States by the Air Force.

Some of the men collected as much as $15,000 in pay.

The workers, returning home from six months' work on a new U. S. air base in Greenland, stopped at Springfield to pick up the wages they accumulated in the North Atlantic. They were said to have earned from $3 to $9 an hour—with little chance to spend any of it there.

The Chamber of Commerce complained to police that some unscrupulous merchants were getting the money-laden workers drunk and selling them huge amounts of merchandise at highly inflated prices.

ISRAEL HONORS TRUMAN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25—(AP)—President Truman today was awarded the 1951 humanitarian award of Histadrut, the general federation of Jewish workers in Israel. In the words of the accompanying plaque, the award was presented for Mr. Truman's "outstanding efforts in fostering maximum understanding between the peoples of the United States and the State of Israel . . ."

Rain Hampers Atomic Tests

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Oct. 25—(AP)—Threatening rain, moving down from the northwest, put a damper today on the preliminary phase of exercise Desert Rock, the joint Army-Atomic Energy Commission maneuvers.

The initial rehearsal for the atomic battlefield test was held at dawn yesterday with B-29 bombers making what appeared to be a conventional bomb run.

About 1,000 troops, including units from Camp Roberts, Calif.; Fort Lewis, Wash., and the 11th Airborne Division from Camp Campbell, Ky., were believed to have been in forward positions for the TNT type blasts.

The AEC did not say how many such dry runs will be made before the atomic drops start. But it was considered significant that the AEC called yesterday's run "an initial rehearsal" indicating more warmups to follow.

No test was scheduled today; any decision about tomorrow probably depends on the weather.

Agent

celle of reneging on a pledge to appear voluntarily.

Marcelle's resignation — by request—as collector of the First New York district was accepted Tuesday night after a four hour conference here with Secretary of the Treasury Snyder and Internal Revenue Commissioner John B. Dunlap. Dunlap said only that the resignation was requested "for the good of the service" and was based on some of Marcelle's "personal actions."

Elias Schulman, a deputy collector in the Brooklyn office, was suspended yesterday "pending completion of investigation of his testimony before special agents of the bureau regarding his financial condition and other matters." Simultaneously, the bureau suspended Theodore Isaacs, an agent in the Upper New York City division, pending investigation of charges of misconduct.

Commissioner Dunlap is to be heard by the committee on Marcelle's forced resignation, following the appearance of the former collector.

In a speech at the National Press Club yesterday, Dunlap disclosed he has instructions from President Truman and Secretary Snyder to correct any defects in the government's tax collection system as quickly as possible.

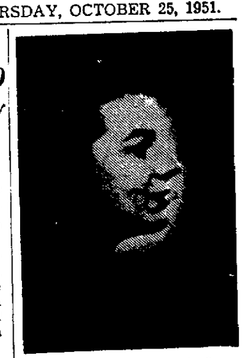
Ragged Eccentric Bequeaths $103,000 To Salvation Army

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Oct. 25—(AP)—A ragged, 77-year-old eccentric who once complained of "a bad year" because he had to spend $14.35 for living expenses, left the Salvation Army $103,000.

This was disclosed yesterday in a will drawn by Maurice G. Monroe of Climax, Mich., more than two years before his death last June 17. He bequeathed all his possessions to the "Salvation Army of Michigan."

His safety deposit box yielded nearly $100,000. Most of it in government bonds and postal savings. A house in Climax and several small savings accounts gave the estate a total value of $103,000.

Monroe raised most of his food himself in a small vegetable garden, but he also collected partially filled jars and cans of food at the city dump. He refused to have his house wired for electricity and wouldn't buy candles. He seldom spent money for clothes.



OPENS O.W.U. SERIES. Irmgard Seefried (above), young Viennese soprano widely known throughout Europe as an opera singer, recitalist, and soloist with orchestra, will open the Ohio Wesleyan University Artists' Series at 8:15 p. m. Monday, in Gray Chapel. Miss Seefried made her American debut on Oct. 19 when she appeared as soloist with the Cincinnati Orchestra. Before coming to this country she appeared at the Edinburgh Festival as soloist with the New York Philharmonic-Symphony under Bruno Walter.

Bad Booze Toll Hits 33

ATLANTA, Oct. 25—(AP)—A deadly moonshine mixture of wood alcohol and water has killed 33 persons in Georgia and its effects have spread to a neighboring state.

Two residents at nearby Winder, Ga., died at the City Hospital there of methyl alcohol poisoning last night and a third was in critical condition.

Police at Nashville, Tenn., said a man who left Atlanta early in the week was hospitalized in critical condition with symptoms of liquor poisoning.

Thirty persons, 26 of them Negroes, died here after drinking the poisonous brew.

New York Newspaper Backs Ike

Herald Tribune Calls General Statesman, Leader

NEW YORK, Oct. 25—(AP)—The New York Herald Tribune is supporting Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for the Republican nomination for president in 1952.

Mrs. Ogden Reid, president of the newspaper, made the announcement last night to the audience of the Herald Tribune Forum after the meeting itself was over.

Simultaneously, front page editorials endorsing the general appeared in Paris and New York editions of the newspaper, which classifies itself politically as independent-Republican.

Eisenhower, the paper said, "is the man" for the Republican party.

"Year by year for nearly 20 years," it continued, "a Democratic administration has underscored the need for a new sense of purposefulness in the country, a fresh standard of integrity in government.

"During this long period in the opposition, Republicans have spoken with many voices. The time has come when they can speak with one voice, united behind a man who both in domestic and foreign policy stands for the basic convictions of a vast majority of citizens."

In addition to being a military leader, the paper said, Eisenhower has shown "the vision of the statesman, the skill of the diplomat, the supreme organizing talents of the administrator, and the humane sympathies of the representative of the people."

It called the general "Republican by temper and disposition."

"He is Republican by every avowal of faith and solemn declaration of purpose," the paper added.

The newspaper supported Gov. Thomas E. Dewey for the Republican nomination in 1948.

Eisenhower was unavailable for comment. Nor was any forthcoming from Supreme Headquarters of Allied Powers in Europe, his command.

U.S. Delegation Sails for U.N. Talks in Paris

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson and most of an 81 member American delegation were to leave today for the United Nations General Assembly session opening in Paris Nov. 6.

Most of the U. S. delegation was due to sail from New York at 4 p. m. (E.S.T.) on the liner America.

Despite the longshoremen's strike, the U. S. Lines told the State Department the America would sail as scheduled.

Included in the group of advisors and aides announced last night by the State Department was R. Gordon Arneson, special adviser to Acheson on atomic affairs. His presence reflects the expectations of U. S. officials that Russia will renew pressure at Paris for acceptance of Moscow's plan for international atomic control. The U.N. has overwhelmingly turned down this plan in the past.

Ambassador Alan G. Kirk, on leave from his Moscow post, is in the U. S. delegation among 25 advisers. Others include American members of the U. N. military staff committees, Lieut. Gen. Willis D. Crittenberger, Vice Admiral Oscar C. Badger and Air Force Lieut. Gen. Hubert R. Harmon.

Other delegates are Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Representatives Mansfield (D-Mont) and Vorys (R-Ohio) and Ambassador Philip C. Jessup.

Bulwark of Southeastern Europe

Turkey at Center of Seething Area

By GLADYS M. WRIGLEY
American Geographical Society

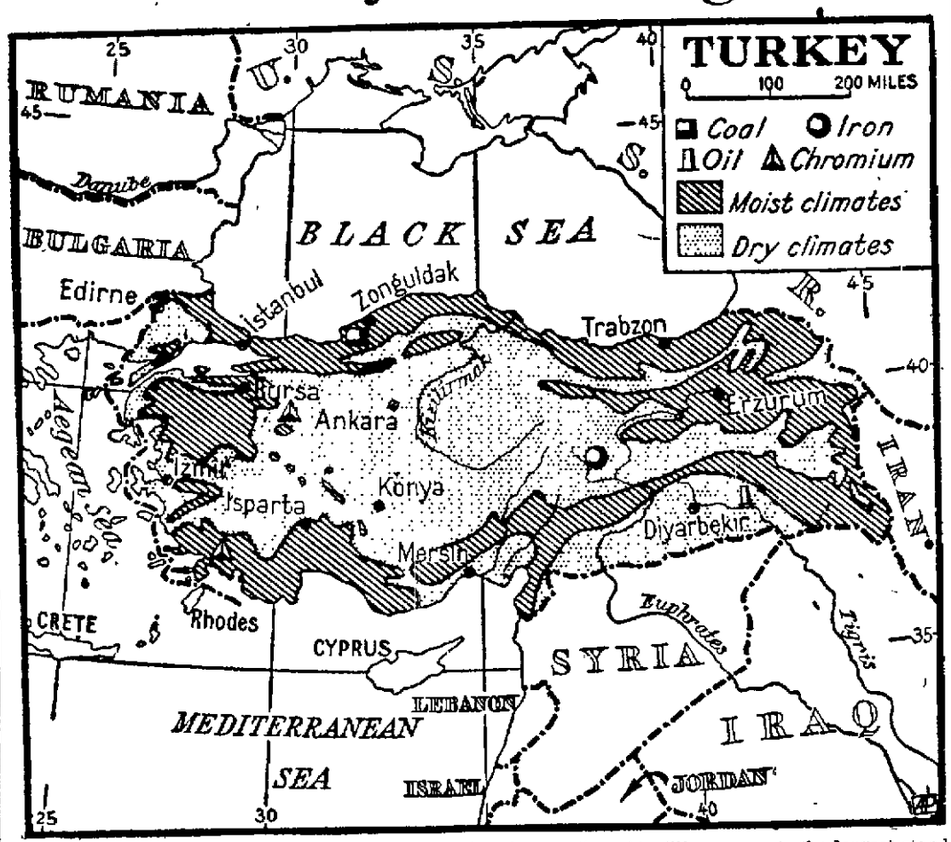
IS Turkey a European state? This question, voiced when it was proposed to include Turkey in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, highlights the country's strategic significance. For centuries the Ottoman Empire with Turkey its core was a symbol of Oriental despotism and backwardness. Today Turkey is a bulwark of southeastern Europe —"Eisenhower's right flank."

The land is a solid block, 900 miles long and 300 broad—an area larger than Texas — thrust between the Black Sea with Russia beyond and the eastern Mediterranean and the adjacent oil-rich lands of the Middle East. Throughout history this block, Anatolia, the eastward land of the Grecks. has been a bridge between east and west. A high, dry plateau, it is in fact an outpost of the central Asiatic steppes whence came the invaders who gave the land their name, language, and religion. Conversely it can be considered an outpost of uninterrupted settlement bordering the great dry belt of the Old World and as such a part of Europe.

European Toehold

The plateau declines westward to the island-sprinkled Aegean; and the Straits, conventional boundary between Europe and Asia, are no bar to eastward movement. The breakup of the Empire left Turkey with only a toehold in Europe, Turkish Thrace—about the size of Vermont — and the magnificently sited Istanbul (Constantinople). But the long occupation of the Balkans affected conquerors as well as conquered and much earlier Hellenic and Roman civilizations had set a permanent seal on western and southern Anatolia. Turkey more than any other Moslem land has affinities with the west.

Since the creation nearly 30 years ago of the Republic by Mustapha Kemal Ataturk, that "fair-skinned, blue-eyed, red-haired Turk from Macedonia,' Turkey has swung definitely into the western orbit. Separation of church and state and the abolition of the Caliphate mark the profundity of the change, though severance with Islam is not implied. On the contrary, and especially since the Russian threat to Iran, efforts have been made to bolster Turkish-Arab relations. However, Turkey has participated in the Council of Europe at Strasbourg; and despite internal needs, contributed a brigade with a record of outstanding service with the U.N. forces in Korea Turkey's population of some 21 million supports the largest standing army in Europe next to the U.S.S.R. and about half the national budget is devoted to defense expenditure. She promptly subscribed to the European Recovery Program, and received help therefrom.



Mineral Wealth

Turkey is well endowed in other things beside strategic location. Mineral wealth, still incompletely explored includes coal, iorn, chromium (one of the world's largest producers and an important source for the U. S.) and oil. But agriculture is the life of the land, and agriculture is generally backward. The chief revenue from exports comes from tobacco, nuts, and dried fruit—tropical Mediterranean crops. Exports of grain, grown on large state farms, fluctuate widely, depending on drouth and other circumstances; in 1946 thousands of tons of grain were left rotting on the plateau because of lack of transport. The output of oilseeds and industrial fibers could be greatly increased. Equipment and technical know-how, water control, and above all road improvements are prime needs. The last named ties in too with defense. The importance of the 550 mile road from Iskenderun (Alexandretta) and Mersin on the Mediterranean to the fortress city of Erzurum in the northeast may also be stressed.

Inseparables Finally Go Separate Ways

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—(UP)—It's finally a parting of the ways for Milton C. Addington and Ralph Dubrovner, who always seem to be doing the same thing at the same time.

Addington and Dubrovner graduated from the same high school together, and started Southwestern College here together.

They stopped school and enlisted in the Marine Corps together and managed to serve together for a year and a half. They found themselves on the same ship coming home from the war.

Back at Southwestern, they got their Bachelor of Arts Degrees together.

Both decided on further study at the University of Tennessee, where they got their Masters' degree together.

Although Addington stayed on at U. T. and Dubronver transferred to the University of Iowa. they were awarded Doctor of Philosophy degrees at the same time,

Now, however. Dubrovner has accepted a position with the Air Force in Sacramento, Cal, and Addington has decided to serve at Kennedy Veterans Hospital here.

Sweet-smelling heliotrope was introduced ino Europe from Pereu almost 200 years ago, immediately becoming popular.

Red Attitude Softens At Truce Talk

PANMUNJOM, Korea, Oct. 25—(AP)—The atmosphere surrounding the Korean armistice talks here is far different than it was in Communist-held Kaesong.

Perhaps the change is due, in part, to the fact that an American military policeman is standing guard at the southern outskirts of the town.

At any rate, Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief U.N. command negotiator, used the word "amicable" in describing the results of today's brief session. That was the feeling outside the tent, too

Joy arrived by helicopter in a field less than 50 yards from the tent.

Lt. Gen. Nan Il and the Communist delegation arrived a short time later in black Russian jeeps.

Joy and his delegation stood behind the tent in the sunshine, awaiting the start of the conference.

The Chinese and North Koreans were escorted to the tent by two North Korean soldiers carrying rifles with fixed bayonets.

The path to the U.N. tent was guarded by two American M.P.'s carrying 45 caliber automatics.

substantial matters and not go into past history.

"We wanted to get into agenda item number two (the buffer zone) as quickly as possible and that is exactly what we are doing."

Thursday night was the first time since negotiations opened July 10 that the United Nations command has publicly announced exactly where it wanted the cease-fire line.

Previously the Allies insisted on current battle lines.

Maj. Gen. Henry I. Modes of the U. N. subcommittee made the specific proposal and handed the map to the Reds. He told them it was submitted as "a new and concrete solution."

Reds Make No Offer

Nuckols said the Communists had asked the U. N. for a proposed cease-fire line. Tney made no offer of their own.

In submitting the proposal, Nuckols said, Hodes made these points:

1. The demilitarized zone was based generally on the line of battle contact and thus embodied the first basic requirement of a military armistice.

2. Some departures from the actual battle line were incorporated to insure defensible positions for both sides—thus meeting a requirement for troop security during an armistice.

3. The zone of only four kilometers (2½ miles) would provide an adequate buffer between opposing forces without injecting numerous administrative requirements.

Church Stage Dedicated

Epworth Group Presents Play

Dedicating the new stage in Epworth Methodist Church's new educational unit to the production of religious drama, a cast of more than 20 from the church is presenting "One Foot in Heaven," by Hartzell Spence, this week. Opening Wednesday night for a three-night run, the play will be presented again Friday and Saturday nights.

Preliminary to raising of the curtain on the first night performance, a brief dedication of the stage was spoken by Dr. V. E. Busler, Epworth Chuch pastor.

The audience of more than 300 gave the cast encouragement by enthusiastic applause. Time of the production each night is 8. with a request for seating of the audience by 7 45. It was announced that seats in limited number are yet available for Friday and Saturday nights. Reservations may be made by calling the church office. There is no admission fee, but a freewill offering is received each night.

SINGER WARBLES A SONG OF MURDER IN MORETTI CASE., Nightclub singer Patricia Clifford leaves Hackensack, N. J., courthouse with a detective after giving authorities a new lead in the Moretti murder. She said she drove Joseph LiCalsi (right) and two other men to the rendezvous which resulted in the death of the racketeer. Booked on a technical charge of vagrancy, LiCalsi, an unemployed tailor, denied any part in the killing. He was held in $25,000 bail.

Emmett Osterholt Named Chairman Of Safety Council

Emmett Osterholt of the Arro Expansion Bolt Co. was selected chairman of the Industrial Safety Council for the coming year when the group held its monthly luncheon meeting at Hotel Harding yesterday. Don Penry of the Alloy Cast Steel Co. will serve as vice chairman.

D. E. Mumford of New York City, superintendent of safety for the New York Central Railroad Co., was introduced as guest speaker by Frank Robinson of the New York Central System, program chairman for the meeting.

Firms reporting no lost time accidents in September included Alloy Cast Steel Co., American Malleable Castings, Arro Expansion Bolt Co., Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, Erie Railroad, Fairfield Engineering Co., Marion Machine Tool Co., Monsanto Chemical Co., New York Central System, Ohio Edison, Ohio Fuel Gas Co., Osgood Co., Quaker Oats Co., and Universal Cooler Division.

Probe Ordered At Cleveland State Hospital

COLUMBUS, Oct. 25—(AP)—An immediate investigation of the management at the Cleveland State Hospital was opened today by State Welfare Director John H. Lamneck.

The order came two days after a request by Gov. Frank J. Lausche for a state-wide investigation of all mental institutions. Governor Lausche indicated to newsmen he made a personal inspection of the Cleveland State Hospital last weekend.

Lamneck's investigation order to Dr Calvin Baker, state mental hygiene commissioner, said:

"An immediate investigation should be made of the management of the Cleveland State Hospital to definitely ascertain if there has been mal-administration at the institution, what steps should be taken to correct any unsatisfactory conditions that may exist, and if disciplinary action should be taken against any employe.

"If you should find that there is no in-service (on the job) training program at the . . . hospital, you are directed to see that such programs are instituted at once.

"There should be a careful screening of all new employes at this and all other institutions before such employes are given definite assignments.

"You should also ascertain whether there is or has been a lack of supplies and equipment at the Cleveland State Hospital caused by failure to requisition (from the state warehouse), and, if so, who is responsible for the lack of such supplies and equipment.

"If the rule (against) excessive use of force to restrain patients has been violated at the Cleveland State Hospital, determine whether or not proper disciplinary action was taken against the offenders."

Junior Hi-Y Clubs Plan Dance Tonight

Junior Y-Teen Clubs will be guests of the Junior Hi-Y Clubs from 7:30 to 10 tonight for a Halloween party in the Co-Ed Club room at the Y.M.C.A.

Included in the program will be multiple dances, community singing and piano selections. In keeping with the Halloween season, cider and donuts will be served.

The dance has been planned by a committee of three boys from each of the five Junior Hi-Y Clubs with the help of club advisors.

CALLS OIL EXPERT

TEHRAN, Iran, Oct. 24—(AP)—Iran's chief oil expert, Kazem Hassibi, was summoned suddenly today to Washington, where Premier Mohammed Mossadegh conferred yesterday with President Truman on the British-Iranian oil dispute. Hassibi's departure aroused speculation here that Mossadegh might be preparing to reopen negotiations with the British.

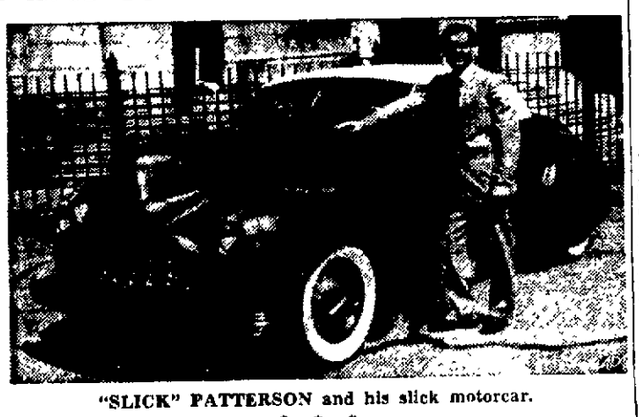
Parts of 16 Cars in Vet's Auto



"SLICK" PATTERSON and his slick motorcar.

RICHMOND, Va..

NAME any American-make automobile, and the chances are good that it is an ancestor of a snazzy, distinctive convertible coupe put together by an 18-year-old Virginia youth.

Navy veteran Clarence L. (Slick) Patterson, of Glen Allen, Va., has just finished a three-year job of blending parts from 16 different cars into his "dream boat." Whenever he drives from his home to nearby Richmond, crowds gather around his pride-and-joy. "What kind of a car is that?" they ask.

It cost him $3,000, though he did most of the work himself.

"Slick" is a railroad sheet-metal mechanic and his trade skill came in handy as he welded together the different car parts.

The youth hotly denies that his car is a "hot-rod."

Push-buttons raise and lower windows, open doors, uncap the gas tank, operate signal lights and also blow two horns. "Slick" has a 1950 model horn for ordinary purposes. But, for a laugh or a lifted eybrow, he has a squawking, 1926 horn under the hood.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK, Oct. 25—(UP)—Stocks rose irregularly at the opening today in moderately active dealings.

All departments took part in the mixed advance. Price changes throughout the list, however, were small with a large number of leading issues holding at their previous close.

Investors displayed a considerable amount of caution at the opening. They centered their attentions on the outcome of the British elections.

A few gold shares displayed strength Howe Sound was a bright spot with a gain of a point to 79½. McIntyre Porcupine improved ¾ to 17½.

Elsewhere, steel shares moved irregularly. Automotives were mixed Rails held steady at the opening. Oils firmed. Utilities were dull and virtually unchanged.

Trading turned quiet a few minutes after the opening bell with prices holding around their opening levels.

Marion Group Will Observe Y-Teen Weeks

Potato Chip Sale Scheduled To Help Finance Program

Y-Teens may be ringing your doorbell this week and next as Ohio District Y-Teens are selling potato chips as a means of putting additional funds into their treasuries during Y-Teen Weeks, Oct. 22 to Nov. 3. The two-week period has been proclaimed as Y-Teen Weeks in 127 communities in Ohio by Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

Proceeds from the sale of potato chips will be used for local club program activities and to send girls to Y-Teen conference. One of their most important projects is the Chocolate for Christmas giving they do each year.

Y-Teens, the youngest membership group affiliated with the Young Women's Christian Association, most frequently carry on their activities through clubs set up in high schools. The Ohio District Y W C A. makes possible the Y.W.C.A. program for teen-age girls in those communities which do not have a Y W.C.A. building and a resident staff.

Leaders in the local Y-Teen and Y.W.C.A. program are Mrs. Thelma Jacobs, Miss Margery Eymon, Miss Elizabeth Gray and Miss Lela M. Brookshire, advisors, and Mrs. Clair Smith, president of the Y.W.C.A. unit.

Presidents of the four Marion Y-Teen Clubs are Ann Arthur, Edison; Beverly Hurley, Harding; Joyce Snyder, State Street, and Diana Jones, Vernon.

School Manager P.-T.A. Speaker

E. Paul Huffman, business manager of the Marion City Schools, was a speaker at the October meeting of the Forest Lawn P.-T. A. Tuesday night. He discussed his work in conducting the business of the city school system. W. A. Dallas, president, opened the meeting with prayer. A program hour was in charge of Mrs. Robert McCombs. A new flag was presented the school by the Daughters of America. Singing was led by Mrs. McCombs. A talk was given by Harold Fralich, a candidate for Sixth ward councilman. Following the program the parents visited the school rooms. Refreshments in keeping with Halloween were served. The social committee included Mrs. Don Lenhart, chairman, Mrs. Mike Shuman, Mrs. Gerald Fleming, Mrs. Howard Bailey, Mrs. Robert McCombs, Mrs. O. G. Biggs, Mrs. Sheldon Dodds, Mrs. Robert Maag Jr., and Mrs. Robert Romoser. The first grade taught by Mrs. Dorothy Key received the award for having the largest number of parents in attendance.

APPROVE DITCH PROJECT

BUCYRUS — Crawford County commissioners have approved the proposed McKibben ditch improvement in Cranberry and Auburn Townships, Mrs. Lucile Kunkle, commissioners' clerk, reported here today. The resolution calls for reconstruction, cleaning, straightening and widening the ditch, which commences on the farm of John and Edith McKibben in Cranberry Township. It runs through property in Auburn Township, owned by Isaac Kraft, Homer Willford and Paris Gullett.

DEATHS and FUNERALS

Mrs. F. H. Flickenger

CARDINGTON — Mrs. Ella Flickenger, 85, died Oct. 20 in Columbus at the home of her daughter Mrs. Lucille Harlow. Mrs. Flickinger was the widow of F. H. Flickenger, a former superintendent of the Cardington Union School.

Mrs. Flickinger is survived by her three children, Mrs. Lucille Harlow at whose home she died, Mrs. Eileen Alston of Detroit and Karl C. Flickenger of Cleveland. Also two brothers, Charles Wagner of Mansfield and William Wagner of East St. Louis, Ill.

Funeral services and burial were held Tuesday in Mansfield.

Robert Smiley

CAREY — Robert Smiley, 47, merchant seaman formerly of Carey, died suddenly at his home in New York City at 7:30 p. m. Saturday. Cause of death was pronounced heart attack.

Born Aug. 20, 1904, at Patterson, he was a son of Ira and Alice Martz Smiley, and was a resident of Carey 35 years. June 19, 1932, he married Jessie Lichty.

Surviving are his widow, his father, who lives in Carey, a sister, Mrs. Helen Friedell of Cleveland, and brothers, John Smiley of Wichita, Kan., Ernest of Tiffin, George of Lima, Carl of Bucyrus, and Lester, Glenn, Ralph, and Jack Smiley, all of Carey.

The body arrived here Wednesday afternoon at the Goff Funeral Home where friends may call. Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2 p. m. in the funeral home. Rev. Samuel Shockey will officiate. Burial will be at Patterson.

Conrad George Margard

CRESTLINE—Conrad George Margard, 71, of Sandusky died suddenly at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday in the home of his son, Rev. W. L. Margard. He had been visiting his son.

Mr. Margard a retired meat market operator was born in Sandusky May 20, 1880, a son of Conrad George and Minnie Hall Margard. His wife, the former Catherine Hishman, died in September, 1951.

Survivors are two sons, Rev Margard of Crestline, Dr. Glen Margard of Vermilion, formerly of Crestline, a daughter, Mrs. James Corey of Akron. Two sisters, Mrs. Henry Brown, of Sandusky and Mrs. George Kaiger of Huron. He was a member of Evangelical and Reformed Church in Sandusky.

The body was taken to the Garverick Funeral Home and will be taken to the Lutz Funeral Home in Sandusky today, where services will be held Saturday at 2:30 p.m. Rev. A. R. Von Gruenigen will officiate. Burial will be made in Oakland Cemetery Sandusky.

Mrs. Sherman Bachar

CRESTLINE — Mrs. Sadie V. Bachar, 82, of Vanlue died at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Petee, in Crestline, where she had lived three and a half years. She was ill several months.

Born July 27, 1869, in Hancock County, she was a daughter of Ira and Mary Jane Morehart Blotts. Her husband, Sherman Bachar, died in 1947. She was a member of the Church of God at Mansfield.

Surviving with the daughter in whose home she died are sons, Morton and Robert Bachar, both of Toledo.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 1 p. m. in the Robert F. Beck Funeral Home in Crestline Rev. S. C. Johnson will officiate. Burial will be at Vanlue.

GUYTON SERVICES HELD

Burial of Robert G. Guyton Jr., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Guyton of 557 South Main street, was Wednesday in Marion Cemetery. The child died shortly after birth Tuesday at City Hospital. His parents, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sisson of 512 Park street, and great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sisson of Green Camp and Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Roller of 530 East Farming street, survive.

-Funeral Services-

Mrs. Margaret B. Johnston—Friday 9:30 a m, St. Mary Catholic Church, Rev. Urban Wiggins, burial St. Mary Cemetery. Friends may call at the L. A. Axe and Son Funeral Home.

SODA POP BONANZA

SOAP LAKE, Wash.(UP)—Ten cases of full and empty soft drink bottles slid off a sideswiped truck and the youngsters cashed in. The driver told the neighborhood youngsters they could have the full bottles if they helped collect the empties. They did.

New Shoulder Patches Worn By Policemen

If you've noticed a new look about the Marion police officers lately, it's because they're sporting new shoulder patches.

The new insignia have been sewn on the left shoulder of shirts and jackets. The patches are now a required part of their uniforms.

They were purchased to enable Marionites to readily identify policemen from other uniformed men in the city.

The patches have a replica of the Harding Memorial in the center, and around the outside is written "Marion Ohio Police." Patrolmen wear patches embroidered in white thread, and the four captains and Police Chief Tom Coon have patches finished in gold thread. Both are on a navy blue background.

MAYOR GETS AN "A"

MILWAUKEE, —(UP)—Mayor Frank Zeilder, who's been taking correspondence courses for almost 20 years, recently finished a college extension course on municipal government. Appropriately enough, his Honor got an "A." Now the mayor has started another course—in United States government

The first U. S. electric train was built by Prof. Charles Grafton Page, of the Smithsonian Institution in 1851.

Help your family avoid colds!

BUILD THEIR ENERGY AND RESISTANCE WITH THIS SIMPLE LEMON HEALTH PLAN!

VITAMIN C ALL-IMPORTANT!

Your family must have generous amounts of vitamin C at this time of year. Lack of vitamin C saps their energy, lets colds and other infections creep in.

Each member of your family should have a fresh supply of vitamin C each day. The body cannot store this important vitamin.

LEMONS RICH IN VITAMIN C!

Vitamin C is absent from most foods, scarce in most others. But fresh lemons are one of its richest known sources.

Now's the time to build your family's resistance against the colds and infections that come with fall and winter.

The Lemon Health Plan is a very simple one: Prevent vitamin C deficiency by serving lemons in some of the ways suggested in the panel at right—every day!

To start you on your Lemon Health Plan, dealers are cooperating in a giant Lemon Health Sale—on now at your market!

Try This Lemon Health Plan For 30 Days!

USE LEMONS IN SOME OF THESE WAYS EVERY DAY

FRESH LEMONADE each day, in place of less healthful soft drinks.

LEMON WITH TEA Serve large wedges of lemon instead of thin slices.

WITH SALADS, SEA FOOD and as a pepper-upper for cooked vegetables.

LEMON IN WATER FIRST THING ON ARISING A national health habit. Provides vitamin C and maintains healthful regularity at the same time.

NOTE: If you feel a cold coming now . . . take lemon and soda every 2 to 3 hours the first day, 3 to 4 times a day thereafter if needed. Forms natural sodium citrate; gives all vitamins in lemons plus increased alkalinity. To make: just squeeze juice of 1 lemon in half glass of water. Add—slowly—½ teaspoon baking soda (bicarbonate). Drink as foaming quiets. Take hot lemonade at bedtime; recommended by doctors to induce perspiration.

Branch Bank Plans Display Of Currency

Exhibit To Be Held In Connection With Opening

The West Town Branch of the National City Bank, which opened for business yesterday, today announced a display of currency is planned in connection with the opening.

The exhibit, to be shown in the front window of the West Center street bank Friday, Saturday and Monday, will feature bills of all denominations and sizes and will include counterfeit bills.

Another highlight of the bank's opening was the "open house" held Monday and Tuesday nights in connection with the West Towne Jubilee held then.

First depositor and the first user of the bank's drive-in window were members of the West Towne Merchants Association, which sponsored the jubilee. They were L. R. Lane of Lane Supply Co. and Wilbur Shover of Shover Radio and Television, respectively.

Manager of the bank is Ralph Q. White, assistant cashier of the main bank. Dale Schmidt is auditor and he and Harold Baker, teller, are in charge of the drive-in window, located at the east side of the new building. They will also work at the counter. Mrs Richard Langdon is another teller and Mrs. William Thomas is in charge of savings and the safe deposit boxes.

The West Town branch is the second opened by National City. The first was at Waldo.

today when milk trucks failed to roll.

Deliver To Hospitals

The union continued deliveries to hospitals, schools, military installations, convents and certain other institutions.

Residents of the city — already plagued by an 11-day-old dock strike—were expected to clean the remaining milk from store shelves early today. Some dairy plants were making retail sales to individual consumers from slim supplies.

The milk men's union, which says the workers have not had a pay increase in three years, lists weekly salaries at $64 50 for plant workers and $64 a week plus commissions for drivers. They work a 40-hour week. An employer spokesman said the drivers average $78 a week, and some earn up to $100.

Spokesmen for the milk industry, whose ceiling prices are fixed by the Office of Price Stabilization, contended the companies cannot assume added costs without a price increase.

James G. Lyons, regional director of the OPS, said the agency shortly would issue an order on dollar and cents ceiling prices on milk and milk products. He gave no indication how this order would affect present retail milk prices.

Popular Spot for Relaxation

"Russian Bath" Is Social Center

MOSCOW — (AP)—One of the most popular social institutions in Russia is the Russian bath.

Like its foreign counterparts, the famous Finnish bath and the Turkish bath, the Russian bath is a place where one relaxes as well as gets clean.

It is an exceedingly popular form of treatment for "the morning after" as well as for just ordinary fatigue.

You check your overcoat, hat and overshoes as you go in. Then you buy a ticket and mount the stairs to the bath.

In the men's section there is a large room for disrobing with attendants who look after your garments. Scales are handy for those who wish to check their weight "before and after."

THERE IS A LARGE central room kept at a high temperature by steam from Moscow's central heating station. This room has numerous spigots of hot and cold water and benches for persons washing, using basins furnished in the room.

Going on through this room one enters the steaming room. This chamber has a very high ceiling and a stairway leading up to an upper level near the ceiling. It is filled with live—invisible — steam. At the bottom of the room, the temperature is warm. You fill a basin with cold water and start to mount the stairs. As you go up the stairs the temperature increases until when you are standing on the upper level the temperature induces an intense sweat. You dash cool water on yourself from the basin to keep from being overheated. You can stay here as long as you can stand it, but most people spend not more than 10 to 15 minutes in this stage.

After this you can take a shower and go to the massage room. Here professional masseurs take over. They wash you down most thoroughly with the aid of a "mochalka" as it is called, made of linden tree shavings. And then they massage.

After the message you can go to the swimming pool for a dip. Many customers go from the pool back to the steam room and continue the routine as long as they desire.

By the time you have dressed and are ready to leave the whole process has absorbed as much as an hour and a half or two hours.

THE RUSSIAN BATH is patronized regularly by many Russians who have good bathing facilities in their own homes. Such people are attracted by the masseurs, the steam room, the pools, and also by the social aspect Most people go to the bath with friends. It is a good place to chat.

FBI Called In Burglaries

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has started an investigation of the series of burglaries ranging from Oklahoma City to Baltimore. Included are four at Prospect, which an Ohio youth admitted to Sheriff LeRoy Retterer.

Sheriff Reterer obtained that information from the Richland County, Ill., sheriff in a telephone conversation yesterday. He was attempting to locate James Robert Massie, 26, second man implicated in the crime spree, who is serving a sentence there.

The Ohio youth who admitted the burglaries is serving a term at Charleston, W. Va. He is Ceskie Calvin Oliver, 18, of Blacklick He confessed to Sheriff Retterer and Deputy Elmer Ullom, he, Massie and Massie's wife had burglarized the Kimmell Hardware store, the Prospect Hardware Co., Rouse's garage and Osborn's Drug Store.

Sheriff Jesse Shipley of Richland County told Retterer Massie's wife, Betty, and two children were making their home with Massie's father at Olney, Ill.

Shipley said West Virginia authorities would get Massie when he finished his sentence at Vandalia, Ill. Massie escaped capture while attempting to rob a small business establishment in South Charleston, W. Va. Oliver was captured and confessed to a long string of robberies.

Air Force Tests Ground Observers

The U. S. Air Force, in the first test of its kind in the nation, staged a surprise air raid alert yesterday in a 19-state area, The Associated Press reported.

The object of the three-hour alert was to determine how rapidly some 6,000 ground observer posts in the northeastern area of the country could answer a call to action. The Marion observer post, headed by Dr. A. J. Wagner, is included in the area.

Reports on the results of test were withheld by Eastern Air Defense Force headquarters in Newburgh, N. Y., to avoid disclosing strong or weak points of the nation's air raid warning system.

No planes were sent up, and key air raid warning centers were not involved in the exercise — and the public generally was not aware of the mythical approach of enemy aircraft.

Air Force officials explained that the surprise alert was intended only to test communications facilities.

In yesterday's alert, 21 filter stations were ordered to reach observation post supervisors by telephone. The call did not go beyond supervisors, and the observation posts were not manned.

The test was considered effective, it was explained, if supervisors received the alert notice

Chiefs of Marion County's four ground observer corps were notified yesterday at the time of the alert and replied, William R. Martin, head of the Marion County Civil Defense reported today. He said calls were placed for the heads of each of the corps and they answered as soon as notified.

Marion County Ground Observer Corps are located in Marion, Caledonia, Agosta, and Waldo.

A big hydroelectric program for developing power and irrigation facilities is getting under way in Italy's Tiber River basin where the old Romans made engineering history with bridges, aqueducts and drainage sytems.

Tombstone Date Set, He Lives On

EAGLE, Wis.—(UP)—According to his tombstone, John Aplin, Eagle, has been dead for a year. But the 87-year-old Aplin is still very much alive.

The tombstone date reads 1865-1950. Aplin had the date cut in 1946 when his wife, Alice, died.

He decided he would have all the stone cutting done at once. And when the stonecutter asked what date he should put down for Aplin's death, Aplin said, "put down 1950. A few years one way or the other doesn't make any difference."

Harding at Ashland Tonight; St. Mary, Carey Play Friday

Prexies Out To Snap A's Six-Game Streak

By JOHN SHORT

Pete Howison's Harding charges may be facing their toughest foe of the season in the Ashland A's tonight. Ashland fans are pointing to Prexies as the big block in the A's drive for their first undefeated season since 1910.

The Ashland crew may be sky-high by gametime and would cause a lot of trouble for the locals. Both teams will enter the game at top strength.

Boasting six straight wins without tasting defeat, the Ashland crew has rolled to 191 points, for an average of nearly 32 points per encounter. They have allowed 68 points, for an 11.3 defensive mark.

PREXIES SCORING

Harding, while composing a 4-1-1 mark, has posted 137 points or an average of 22 9 per game The locals have been touched for 103 markers or an average of 17 1 for each encounter.

Standout performers for the Ashland team have been Dave Johns, first string quarterback, who tears the opponents' defenses to shreds with short aerials. Jim Roseboro, 155-pound fullback, is the all around ace of the host team's running attack. In addition to hurling the long aerials, he also calls the signals. In six games, he has personally scored 63 of the Ashland points. Bill Springer, right half, has accounted for 49 points. The backfield is rounded-out by 220-pound Jack Mosser, running from the left half post.

The line is bolstered by Glenn Haley, 242 pounds, as offensive center and defensive tackle, Roland Stewart, 220 pound tackle on offense and defense and Jim Campbell, whose 205 pound hulk fills the other defensive tackle slot.

Easy Times

Ashland has rolled to lopsided wins over all opponents except Tiffin Calvert. They squeezed out a 12-7 win over that crew. Their other verdicts include scores of 26-7 over Willard, 39-12 over Mansfield Madison, 53-29 over Ravenna, 33-7 over Shelby and a 28-6 shellacking of Wooster last week.

The Presidents have been girding for a shot at the unbeaten mark of the A's since last week's impressive win over Findlay. They came through the Buckeye League encounter with several minor wounds which are expected to be healed by gametime.

Jimmy Russell received a bruised thigh and Tom McClain once again has a touch of the flu Both, however, have shown remarkable convalescing ability as gametime approaches

Veeck Gives Brown Coaches Their Release

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5—(UP)—Last season's entire St. Louis Browns coaching staff was out looking for new jobs today.

Owner Bill Veeck discharged the lot of them yesterday in his campaign to put new life in the chronic American League fall guys.

He immediately filled one of the posts—the first base assignment—with Bill Norman and announced that new Brownie Manager Rogers Hornsby will take over the third base chores.

Norman, 41, has managed the Cleveland Indians' Wilkes-Barre, Pa., farm club for the past two seasons.

The discharged coaches are Ralph Winegarner, Johnny Tobin, Ed Redys and Johnny Berardino.

Badger Back Leads Big 10 In Rushing

CHICAGO, Oct. 25—(AP)—An 18-year-old freshman who's called "The Horse," because he runs like one, has galloped into the lead as the Big Ten's top running back.

The youngster is Alan Ameche, Wisconsin fullback who in three tough conference games has pumped his way to stardom.

Official Big Ten statistics reveal that Ameche is averaging a flat five yards per carry. He has a total of 267 yards gained against Illinois, Ohio State and Purdue The Badgers lost to Illinois, tied Ohio State and beat Purdue.

Ameche's teammate, Quarterback John Coatta, leads the conference in passing. Starting off where he finished last year, in possession of the Big Ten passing title, Coatta has completed 44 of 82 attempts for 513 yards and a 537 average.

Coatta also leads in total offense, although behind-the-line tackles have cut his over-all figure to 473 yards.

Badger End Hal Faverty has caught nine passes for 25 yards, and is the leading pass receiver He is tops in the interception category, too, with two, good for nine yards in returns.

Ohio State's Vic Jonawicz has the best punting average, 43 yards. Iowa's George Rice and Michigan's Don Peterson have scored the most points, 18 each.

In holding three opponents to an average of 2.76 yards per play, Wisconsin qualifies as the Big Ten's top defensive unit. Northwestern, on the basis of only one game, is the offensive leader. The Wildcats rolled up 19 first downs, 406 total yards and an average of 4 5 yards a play in beating Minnesota, 21-7.

The biggest diamond ever found is the Cullinan. Uncut, it weighed 3,025 carats or about four and a half pounds.

LOUIS AND MARCIANO MEASUREMENTS. These pictures of former heavyweight champion Joe Louis (right) and heavyweight contender Rocky Marciano (left) made during their current training sessions, show how they will compare physically when they meet for their 10-round battle in New York's Madison Square Garden tomorrow night. Both will weigh in officially at noon on the day of the fight.

20th Straight For Harding Runners

Harding High School's cross-country runners won their 20th straight meet yesterday at the Marion County Club in beating Worthington, 25-34.

Running against a strong wind in 40-degree temperatures, the boys' times were slowed up. However, the race between Harding's John Ashworth and Blackburn of Worthington was all that had been expected. Ashworth took the two-mile gallop in a time of 10 38.8. Coach Ken Somerlot said Ashworth might have broken the course record under better weather conditions.

Blackburn set the pace for the first mile and during the second half of the race, the two ran by themselves. Ashworth pulled even at the mile and a half mark and then took the lead. He fought off all challenges in the last half mile to win going away.

Harding's top seven were Ashworth, Ted Price, Frank Green, Dee Price, Dick Bollinger, Joe Thomas and Dick Coulson.

These seven are the Prexy runners who will defend Harding's district title in the Central District meet Saturday morning at Columbus. The locals will be seeking their third title in a row.

RESULTS

(1) Ashworth (H) 10 35 8; (2) Blackburn (W) 10 39, (3) T. Price (H) 11 11; (4) Bivens (W) 11 13 (5) Williams (W) 11 16, (6) Green (H) 11 28, (7) D Price (H) 11 29, (8) Bollinger (H) 11 35 5 (9) Thomas (H) 11 41, (10) Coulson (H) 11 41 5, (11) Dutton (H) 11 42 5, (12) Craft (H) 11 45, (13) Glass (W) 11 49 (14) Porter (H) 12 16, (15) Adams (W) 12 21, (16) Perry (H) 12 32, (17) R. White Sox Get Cuban in Trade

CHICAGO, Oct. 25—(UP)—The Chicago White Sox handed over Infielder Floyd Baker to the Washington Senators today in return for a 23-year-old rookie shortstop from Cuba, Guillermo Miranda.

The deal for Miranda, designed to back up ace shortstop Chico Carrasquel also netted the Senators an unannounced sum of money.

Miranda, who throws right handed and is a switch hitter, had four hits in nine times at bat with the Senators last season for a seven-game .444 average.

Fight Friday Seen as Battle Of Two Styles

Experts Claim Marciano Made To Order for Louis

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25—(AP)—An interesting experiment in the art of fisticuffs will take place in Madison Square Garden—and on the TV channels—tomorrow night It's a contest between old (but not the old) Joe Louis and Rocky Marciano . . . Three factors make it especially interesting . . . First, a lot of experts who had been advising a slow, plodding Louis to quit before some youngster belted his ears off now are picking Joe to whip the most promising, hardest-hitting youngster now in sight. . . . Second, Rocky owes his position as a heavyweight title prospect to Al Weill, a keen student of boxing styles, and Al's man Friday, Charlie Goldman . . . and third, the guys who are picking Louis to win are doing it because of his style

Weill no longer owns Marciano. Al gave Rocky's contract to his son, Marty, when he became I B C matchmaker, and apparently Goldman went along in the deal—maybe for a couple of box tops . . . At any rate, it is evident that Marciano and Manager Marty could have the benefit of sound advice on styles if they wanted it and, as previously indicated, Weill and Goldman are experts on what style of boxing will produce good results against a fighter with another style . . . They're the ones who took big, awkward Arturo Godoy and steered him through one notable tussle with Louis and they've done the same sort of thing on other occasions . . . It's almost inconceivable that Goldman would, let the short-armed, wild-swinging Marciano just walk in and let himself be hacked to pieces by Louis' jabs and do nothing more than try to land a mighty right . . Yet some observers claim that's just what will happen that Rocky can't fight any other way and that Joe, hitting with his old snap and speed and shooting combinations with devastating effect, has just the style to stop Marciano . . . From here, we only see that Louis is 10 years older than the Rock and as Joe himself says: "Anybody can hit me with rights; even my little daughter can do it." . . . we think Marciano will hit harder than Joe's daughter.

ROSAR RELEASED

BOSTON, Oct. 25—(AP)—The Boston Red Sox have given veteran Catcher Warren (Buddy) Rosar his unconditional release. The 37-year-old backstop started his major league career with the New York Yankees in 1939. He came to the Red Sox from the Philadelphia Athletics after the 1949 season in a deal which sent Infielder Billy Hitchcock to the A's.

Irish Aim for First Win In More Than Month

Disappointing after a good start, St. Mary's grid machine will attempt to get back on the winning track against the Carey Blue Devils tomorrow night in Carey.

Coach Ray Robbins' crew has dropped three out of its last four games and tied once. The Irish haven't won since beating Zanesville Rosecrans, 37-19, Sept. 22.

The Blue Devils have also been taking their lumps this season, winning only one game in six. Their only victory was a 27-0 nod over Ada Oct. 5.

Looking at comparative scores, St. Mary lost to Lima St. Rose, 13-6, while Carey was downed by the same team, 25-7.

The Carey team has turned in good games this season, however, despite its record. Such powerful elevens as Oak Harbor, Loudonville, and St. Marys had a rough night before finally winning Robbins reports the Irish to be in fairly good shape. Speedy Dave Carr is still hampered by a leg injury, but is expected to be ready to go.

Fullback Jim Finnegan is also expected to see more offensive action after suffering a broken finger.

Robbins has been drilling his youngsters in ball-handling all week after nine fumbles led to a 6-0 loss to a surprising Richwood squad.

Slowed by Injuries

The Blue Devils have been hampered by injuries since their opener against Oak Harbor. Broken bones, charley horses and other injuries have brought about numerous changes in the Carey lineup.

Two first stringers will not see action against the Irish due to scholastic troubles. Fullback Bob Cole removed his hand from a cast this week and may play.

TV Fans To See Big Ten Teams

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct 25—Saturday's vital Big Nine clash between unbeaten-untied Northwestern and Wisconsin will be telecast on WLW-C, Columbus, a game carried by N.B.C. TV stations throughout the Midwest and West.

Saturday is another "sectional" day on the N.C.A.A.-Westinghouse TV schedule. Viewers in the middle Atlantic and Southeastern states will see two Ivy League titans, Princeton and Cornell, put unblemished records on the block in their game at Princeton. Stations in some New England and Eastern states offer the Harvard-Dartmouth tussle at Cambridge, Mass.

Northwestern, a "surprise" team in the Western Conference this fall has bowled over Colorado, Army, Minnesota and Navy in that order as Wisconsin, rated high in preseason calculations has dropped Marquette and Purdue, tied Ohio State and lost only to Illinois.

Bradley Cage Fixers Enter Guilty Plea

NEW YORK, Oct. 25—(AP)—Basketball All-America Gene Melchiore, along with Bradley University teammates George Chiankis and William Mann, pleaded guilty yesterday to conspiracy in the basketball scandal.

They had been indicted on charges of conspiracy, a misdemeanor, and bribery, a felony, in connection with a plot to fix a consolation playoff game with Bowling Green in the National Invitation Tournament in Madison Square Garden on March 9, 1949.

General Sessions Judge Saul S Streit yesterday set Nov. 14 as the date they will be sentenced.

Assistant District Attorney Vincent A. G O'Connor, in recommending that the three be permitted to plead guilty to the lesser count which carries a maximum sentence of three years, said they "have been most cooperative."

They were continued under $500 bail each after O'Connor explained the details of the fixed game as follows:

"They agreed to accept $1,500 ($500 each). But the deal by which the Bradley team was to lose by seven points fell through because a substitute who was not in the plot scored a last-minute field goal and cut Bowling Green's margin to five points. The result was an 82-77 victory for Bowling Green. It ruined the betting coup."

Calls for Six Major Loops

MacPhail Gives Ideas at Hearing

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25—(AP)—A house committee has wound up its investigation of baseball but Chairman Celler (D-NY) cautions there is no quick answer to the question of whether the sport violates the anti-trust laws.

"There are many complicating factors," Celler said yesterday as the hearings closed. "For that reason the subcommittee will not attempt any hurried solution."

The hearings ended shortly after Larry MacPhail, former New York Yankee president, called for the organization of six major leagues instead of the present two.

MacPhail didn't say how, or where, his six major loops would be set up But he insisted it would solve many of baseball's most pressing problems.

MacPhail also contended that major league radio and television broadcasts are killing minor league baseball, and the major league farm system should be sharply restricted.

Louis' Rival Is Confident

GREENWOOD LAKE, N. Y., Oct. 25—(AP)—Quiet optimism oozes from this training camp of Rocky Marciano, unbeaten Brockton, Mass., heavyweight with 37 straight victories.

The way the 27-year-old Army veteran acts, you'd think he was ready for another humpty dumpty in Providence rather than the chance of a lifetime against old Joe Louis.

The respect is here—Marciano refuses to make brash statements about a knockout—but Rocky does not stand in awe of the Bomber.

"I've never predicted I'll knock anybody out," he told reporters yesterday after his final boxing drill "I'm confident, very confident."

The fight Friday night will be televised nationally.

STRINGING ALONG. Going against the dopesters who have established Harding a one-touchdown underdog against Ashland tonight, The Star football forecasters go along with the Presidents to end the A's six-game streak.

All four also go along with St. Mary's Fighting Irish to trim Carey's Blue Devils tomorrow night in Carey despite the poor showing by St. Mary in its last two encounters.

PIRATE LOOT. The self-proclaimed experts are also unanimous in the selection of Cardington to make it 16 straight against Fredericktown.

The 'board" has fattened its average considerably in Cardington's six straight victories this season. The combination of Bill Henthorne and Don Kelley is a potent one offensively for the Pirates.

Besides the Harding-Ashland affair, other tough games this week include Galion at Bellevue, Marysville at London, and Claridon vs Johnsville at Mt Gilead Saturday night.

Hunk Anderson Rejoins Bears

DETROIT, Oct. 25—(AP)—Hartley (Hunk) Anderson will drop his kit of steel samples Monday to again take up the trade of football coach.

Anderson announced last night he would return to the Chicago Bears on Monday as line coach, with the understanding that at the end of the season" I will be free to make any deal I desire for my services."

The Bears recently blocked Anderson's taking over as head coach of the Washington Redskins, a rival National Football League club They said Anderson was signed to a two-year contract with a year to run, but hadn't reported this year, remaining with the Detroit steel firm as a salesman.

Sticks With Bucks Despite Indiana Loss

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 25—(AP)—The cost of steak has gone up but you can chew on these football selections for the same old price:

Cornell over Princeton: The game of the season in the East with the winner the likely Ivy League champion. Cornell doesn't have anyone to equal Dick Kazmaier but it has the better balance and Rocco Calvo isn't exactly a slouch when it comes to passing.

Michigan State over Pittsburgh: The Spartans' Don Coleman is one of the country's better tacklers.

Tennessee over Tennessee Tech: The Vol regulars get a Saturday off.

Favors Illini

Illinois over Indiana: The Hoosiers hit their emotional peak against Ohio State last Saturday. The Illini will keep on grinding out yards and victories.

Maryland over Louisiana State: On comparative scores entirely—Maryland defeated Georgia, 43 to 7, LSU did it, 7 to 0. But the Southern Conference team will have to hustle for its victory.

Southern California over Texas Christian: Each club registered an upset last week. The Trojans rugged linebacking should decide this one.

Baylor over Texas A & M: It takes a brave man to make a selection on a Southwest Conference game but the impression here is that Isbell and Co., are slightly the stronger.

Vanderbilt over Georgia Tech: The Tech bubble has lasted about long enough. Wade to best Crawford in a pitching duel.

California over Oregon State: The Oregon State team that lost to Michigan State by a single touchdown at the start of the season might spill the injury-ridden Californians but apparently that was the Beavers game of the year.

Texas over Rice: The Texans want to forget that visit to Arkansas.

Sprinting through the others:

FRIDAY NIGHT

Boston University over Temple, George Washington over Furman, Miami over Mississippi, Oklahoma A. & M. over Detroit.

SATURDAY

East: Columbia over Army, Bradley over Brandeis, Bucknell over Lafayette, Dartmouth over Harvard, Delaware over Muhlenberg, Holy Cross over Brown, Lehigh over New York University, Penn State over West Virginia, Pennsylvania over Navy, Syracuse over Fordham, Yale over Colgate.

Midwest: Cincinnati over Texas Western, Drake over Iowa State, Kansas over Kansas State, Miami (O.) over Macquette, Michigan over Minnesota, Nebraska over Missouri, Notore Dame over Purdue, Ohio State over Iowa, Oklahoma over Colorado, Tulsa over Wichita, Wisconsin over Northwestern.

South: Duke over Virginia, Georgia over Boston College, Kentucky over Florida, North Carolina State over Virginia Tech, Mississippi State over Alabama, The Citadel over Presbyterian, Tulane over Auburn, Virginia Military over Catawba, Wake Forest over North Carolina, Washington & Lee over Davidson, William & Mary over Richmond

Southwest: Arkansas over Santa Clara, Hardin - Simmons over West Texas State, Houston over Villanova

Far West: Denver over Brigham Young, Montana over Utah State, Washington State over Oregon, Washington over Stanford, Utah over Wyoming.

'Coach Calls Plays,' Says Trippi After Sharp Criticism

CHICAGO, Oct. 25 — (AP) — The losing Chicago Cardinal football team was faced with a controversy today after a reported blast at the coaching staff by quarterback Charley Trippi.

The one-time University of Georgia All-American halfback, now in his fifth professional season, apparently simmered under published reports indicating criticism of his signal calling He was said to be accusing Cardinal coaches of "buck passing" in a losing season.

The Cards last Sunday bowed to the Washington Redskins, 7-3. Reporters who covered the game noted that the Cardinals failed to make good on several scoring opportunities.

The Chicago Sun-Times, in this morning's editions, said Trippi "has been widely criticized for failure to call the right plays when the Cardinals were near the Redskin goal. (Coach) Earl (Curly) Lambeau has said that Trippi 'was on his own' at those times."

"That's a lie!" was Trippi's response to this, the newspaper said.

"The Cardinal coaching staff called 90 percent of the plays against Washington . . . I was pretty much on my own until the Cards reached the Washington 10 or 15 yard line. And then I got my instructions from the bench.

"All the players know who's been calling the plays. And they're behind me 100 percent. I intend to coach after finishing with pro football, and I have a reputation to maintain. . . . I don't like to be blamed for somebody else's doing."

AUTOS COLLIDE

Minor damage resulted yesterday at 9 45 p m. when cars driven by John Dale McGraw, 18, of Bucyrus and Eldwin F. Paxton, 17, of West Walnut street collided on South State street, police reported today.

And Iowa Coming Up

Hayes Gloomy as Bucks Look Shabby in Practice

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 25—(AP)—Coach Woody Hayes was discouraged after his Ohio State football team's practice session yesterday.

"We didn't do a thing right," he said.

Hayes said he expects Iowa to display as dangerous an offense next Saturday as Indiana did last week in beating the Buckeyes, 32-10.

"I thought by lightening up this week that things would smooth out," Hayes said. "But that doesn't seem to be the answer. And right now I don't know what is."

The T-formation which Hayes introduced to Ohio State this year, hasn't clicked well all season, after squeaking by Southern Methodist, 7-0, in the opener, the Buckeyes lost to Michigan State, 24-20, and tied Wisconsin, 6-6. Then came the Indiana debacle.

Hayes has been shuffling his lineup all week. He plans to have a basketball star at quarterback, a quarterback at fullback and an All-America halfback on the sidelines.

Wilks at QB

The signal caller and passer will be Bill Wilks, a junior from Hamilton. The 20-year-old, six-foot-two-inch Wilks played basketball only his first two years at Ohio State, but at Hamilton High School he was a good T quarterback.

Hayes has moved Tony Curcillo of Elyria from quarterback to fullback. He was a fullback at Elyria High School, but has been Ohio State's quarterback since the start of last season.

Vic Janowicz, the All-American halfback, may get to play against Iowa, but it's still doubtful. The team doctor recommended he be sidelined for one game because of a rib injury.

Janowicz showed up yesterday for some light running and said he felt fine. But if he plays it will be strictly on offense.

His defensive assignment will be handled by George Rosso, a sophomore who played the last half against Indiana, and John Shelton, a freshman, who has only gone in to punt so far.

"Mom's Night" Set For Forest Game

FOREST, Oct. 25—The mothers of the members of the Forest High football squad will be honored Friday night when the Spencerville Bearcats appear at Memorial Field in a Northwest Conference game. Forest and Spencerville have lost one game each and both to the same team, Columbus Grove.

Should Shawnee defeat Grove Friday night and the Rangers defeat the Bearcats the local squad would be back in first place.

Following the game Friday night members of the squad and their families will enjoy a supper in the school cafeteria.

MAY CLOSE DOOR

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25—(AP)—Action on the Pacific Coast Baseball League's move to shut the door on the major league draft may be taken at the league's annual fall meeting here today. Clarence Rowland, league president, said the meeting is routine. He added, however, some decision may be reached on big league raids on smaller clubs.

Basketball Carnival Set For Coliseum Dec. 28-29

By A. L. McCLAIN

St. Mary takes on Radnor and Elm Valley (Ashley) meets Sulphur Springs. That is the schedule for the first night of a basketball carnival between the four schools Dec. 28-29 here at the Coliseum.

Representatives of the four schools met last night in a lengthy session at Hotel Harding to make the drawings and to iron out other problems.

Coaches and representatives discussed such matters as game officials, awarding of a trophy, reserve games, seating arrangements, starting times, and other details.

Drawings

From the drawings it was agreed the Irish will play Radnor in the opener at 7:45 and Elm Valley will meet Sulphur Springs at 9. The reserve game will start at 6:30.

All four schools are expected to have strong quintets. Elm Valley advanced to the Class B finals at Columbus before losing out to Waynesburg last year.

Attending the meeting were: Ray Robbins and "Ninny" Irvin of St. Mary; R. B. Warner, Harold Dickeracheid, and Emil Ihnat of Elm Valley; Paul Hanes, and Richard Meyer of Radnor; Charles Rader, Robert Espenchied, and Tom Thatcher of Sulphur Springs; and Floyd Cornely of Marion.

Fall From Stumbling Horse Fatal to Jockey

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Oct. 25—(AP)—The body of Richard McCraw, 23, an apprentice jockey with about six months' experience, was to be shipped today to his home town, Farmville, Va.

McCraw fell off his stumbling horse, Junior Ireland, during yesterday's seventh race at Waterford Park, in Newell, W. Va., and broke his neck.

Ernest Sturges, Columbiana County coroner, said McGraw was trying to pull the horse's head up at the time. In falling, his head hit the rail and he bounded onto the track.

?The race was a $1,500 six furlong event for two-year-olds. The accident happened at the three-quarter pole, where McCraw's mount was running third and moving up.

Jury Hears Husband Of Slain Woman

COLUMBUS, Oct. 25—(AP)—Russell V. Alter told about his two marriages yesterday at the trial of George Phillips, 23, charged with second degree murder in the killing of the second Mrs. Alter.

The prosecution charges Phillips, an insurance salesman, beat and strangled Mrs. Alter to death after going to her home to talk about insurance for her 17-day-old baby.

Phillips who lost an arm in a childhood accident, has pleaded innocent and claims he was not in the neighborhood of the Alter home on April 25.

Alter, 40, testified he married his first wife, Betty, in 1946 and divorced her three years later. He said they had no children.

He said he married his second wife, Ruth, on Dec. 23, 1950. Their child was born April 8, 1951. Alter said he had met Ruth in 1946 in a restaurant operated by James Phillips, father of George Phillips. He said he had met George Phillips at the restaurant, but did not know him very well.

Alter on cross-examination, said he did not know who killed his wife. He wept briefly while testifying he went to work at 5:30 a.m. on April 25 and did not return home until about 6 p.m. He said he stopped at the home of his mother and step-father and took them home with him. His mother discovered his wife's body.

BOWLING RESULTS

Gene Martin rolled a 256-600 series in the Automotive League Tuesday night at the Marion Recreation Center. His high single topped six 200's. John Kayatin with a 225 and Bill Barber with a 606 led nine 200 games in the Craftsman Loop. Tanner's 223 and Chamberlain's 580 were high in the Sportsman's League at the Palace alleys while Osborne's 586 and Little with a 207 were high in the Marion Power Shovel League. BIG DIVIDEND

COLUMBIAVILLE, Mich —(UP)—Elmer Herkel, of Flint Mich., caught an eight-pound bass the easy way. Two smaller fish he had caught were dangling on a line outside his boat. When the bass mistook them for bait, Herkel just netted him into the boat.

WAITS FOR DRAFT. Willie Mays, 20, outfielder for the New York Giants, waits to take his pre-induction physical examination at Birmingham, Ala. He hopes to enter the Marine Corps. Mays' assignment to any branch and its date will depend upon his draft board quota. There was no announcement as to whether Mays passed the physical.

Claridon-Johnsville Winner May Decide Double-M Title

A championship in the Double-M League, six-man football, will likely be crowned after the outcome of the Claridon-Johnsville game Saturday night at Mt. Gilead.

Coach Herb Bennett's Hornets, champs in '49, rate a slight favorite, but are expecting a tough game from the up and coming Johnnies.

Ray Price, Claridon's 205-pound "one man gang," is expected to carry the brunt of the Hornets' attack.

In other games around the league, Marengo is at Caledonia and Chesterville journeys to LaRue. Both games will be played Friday.

The LaRue Indians, champs last season, have been beaten by Johnsville and held to a tie by Caledonia so far this year.

FINED ON CONDUCT CHARGE

GALION — Cleve Thompson of Iberia paid a fine of $25 and costs on a charge of resisting arrest, when he appeared before Mayor Jay F. Nichols this week. A 60-day jail sentence was suspended on the provision that he pay the fine and costs, and on his future good behavior. An assault and battery charge filed by J. P. Gleason of Mt. Gilead against Thompson was withdrawn by Gleason.

Editorial Writers Meet in Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Oct. 25—(AP)—Newspapermen from 100 papers throughout the nation were here today for annual sessions of the National Conference of Editorial Writers.

Robert H. Estabrook of the Washington Post is chairman of the conference which has as its theme "war mobilization in the steel industry."

Claridon, Morral Youths Raise Winners

Show Champion Steers

RESERVE CHAMPION OF THE SHOW, held at the Producers Livestock Cooperative Association's Marion yards, was the Hereford shown above with its owner, Dallas Campbell of the Morral F.F.A. chapter. Purchased by the Cleveland A. & P., it brought 70 cents a pound, a new record for a reserve champion. Thirty-one Marion and area boys and girls participated in the show.

ON COLLEGE DEAN'S LIST

Miss Nancy Nussbaum of Marion, a student at Denison University, Granville, O., was one of 64 juniors to be named on the Dean's List for last year with grades in the top fifth of her class, according to information received from the university. The group was honored at a special convocation held for all students Monday. Miss Nussbaum is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nussbaum of 952 East Center street.

Kiwanis Club To Send Four To Convention

Four members of the Marion Kiwanis Club will officially represent the local club at the annual convention of the Ohio Kiwanis District to be held Sunday through Wednesday, Oct. 28 to 31, in Columbus.

They will include L. Otis Porter, club president, M. Paul Hunt, president-elect, G. C. McCreight, secretary, and Max Birnbaum.

Delegates from 185 clubs in the district will participate in the various sessions. Committee conferences, a discussion of plans for the coming year and election of officers will highlight the program.

Featured on the speaking program for the conference will be A. Raney, trustee of Kiwanis International and a prominent Indianapolis, Ind., educator. He is superintendent of the Indiana State School for the Deaf at Indianapolis.

Cub Scout Den Honors Member Leaving City

A farewell party honoring Freddie Haberman III of Marion, who is leaving soon with his parents for California, was given Tuesday afternoon by members of Den 2 of Cub Scout Pack 7, sponsored by Central Christian Church. The Party was held at the home of one of the members, Dick White of 190 East Columbia street. Games provided entertainment, candy was distributed to the guests, and the honored guest was presented a gift from the den members.

Those present were Douglas Beaver, Terry Hoffman, Brent Sechrist, Lynn O'Dowd, Keith Kirts, John Holmes and Dick White, along with the two Denmothers, Mrs. Ruth O'Dowd and Mrs. Margaret White.

Love Triumphant

By ADELE GARRISON

All my doubts about being able to carry out my father's instructions concerning the dinner he wished us to give in New Haven in order to dazzle the "college heel," son of the traitor in a top government position he was trying to destroy, vanished into thin air at Harry Underwood's drawling offer of his services.

For if any man ever deserved the cliche title, "Man of the World," Lillian's husband did. Traveler, gourmet, as much at home in the theater and night clubs as he was in his own home—more, his wife sometimes jestingly told him—I knew that if he took over my problem, it was solved.

I looked over at him gratefully.

"You never can know what a burden you've taken from me," I told him. "I'm laying it on your shoulders right now. I shall think no more about it."

He rose and bowed elaborately from the waist.

It is a pleasure, and an honor, to serve you, Madame," he said. "But don't think you are going to get out of long and intimate consultations with me. This is the chance for which I have longed. lo, these many years. The 'Dicky bird' and my charming spouse are going to be so green with jealousy by the time this party is slung that they'll have to go to a dry cleaner's to be undyed."

He turned and bowed to the rest of the group as laughter greeted him.

"Thank you for your encouragement," he said.

Then he turned back to me.

"Shall I outline my plan briefly to you now, so our auditors won't burst their buttons with repressed curiosity?" he asked deferentially. "We can take up the details later."

"You'll take something else up before your details," his wife told him with pretended vixenish displeasure. "The 'Dickey bird' and I will trim you down to size, and that's a promise."

Her big husband rolled his eyes toward Heaven.

"So what care I, if Death be nigh!" he chanted in his surprisingly well-preserved and resonant baritone, while the four boys and the two girls tried to repress their laughter. Then he sobered, and as he turned to me I read in his eyes the seriousness, and the competence, with which he was attacking my problem,

"I happen to know quite intimately a recently retired French chef, one from the very top shelf, who has the entree of every restaurant worth his attention in the world," he said. "I once was able to render him what he termed a signal service, and there is no favor I cannot ask him. If you approve, I know he will begin to plan that dinner now, getting his rare items at once—some may have to come by fast plane—and assembling them ready for quick transportation to New Haven. Then, as soon as he knows the name of the restaurant you are going to patronize, he will go up there, interview the proprietor, who, in all probability, will fall on his neck—if he doesn't, the Chief will smooth the way for him—and he will be given the privileges of the kitchen. You may be assured his finished product will be something to write home about."

Slot Machine Ruling Given

COLUMBUS, Oct. 25 —(AP)—A slot machine doesn't have to be working to be a gambling device, the Ohio Supreme Court ruled yesterday.

The decision upheld the conviction of Edward Shaffer in Paulding County Common Pleas Court on a charge of unlawfully keeping and exhibiting a slot machine for gain in 1949.

The Court of Appeals had reversed the lower court decision.

During the lower court trial, testimony showed the machine was openly displayed but not in use The court found the machine paid off in coins when played

Shaffer was indicted for exhibiting the slot machine "x x x for gain or to win or gain money or other property x x x."

SET CORN GOAL

Your Good Health

By DR. HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Disorder of Adrenal Glands

Discovery of the new drugs cortisone and ACTH has served to emphasize the great importance of the adrenal glands.

As might be expected where such vital structures are concerned, any disease of these glands is serious. One such disorder is known as Addison's disease. Usually caused by wasting of the glands, it may also be due to their infection with tuberculosis. Apparently a tendency to Addison's disease is inherited since, as a rule, several members of a family are affected.

The onset of Addison's disease is slow, with gradually increasing weakness and loss of weight. Vomiting and diarrhea may become severe, and there may be an extreme craving for salt.

The skin may gradually become a peculiar, smoky-brown in color, which may progress almost to blackness. The color is usually deepest in those parts of the skin exposed to the light. There may also be pigmentation on the inside of the mouth, which appears as bluish-black or grayish-black spots.

The heart beat is weak and feeble, and the blood pressure extremely low. Lack of hair growth on the body and lowered body temperatures are among the other symptoms.

At first it was believed that the disease primarily affected older children and young adults Recently, however, it has been found in infants and young children.

Certain drugs, such as sedatives, laxatives, and insulin, have extremely bad effects on individuals with this disease These drugs should be used with extreme caution.

Since the adrenal is a gland which excretes hormones into the blood, it would seem that the treatment of this condition would consist in the administration of these hormones to the patient.

The use of adrenocortico extract may be of great value in the treatment of the symptoms of this disease. This preparation may be administered daily by injection, in most cases Overdosage of the drug may result in muscular weakness, paralysis, high blood pressure, and enlargement of the heart. The diet should include a large amount of salt, fats, and starches

Patients with Addison's disease have been found to respond dramatically to cortisone However, in spite of the remarkably good results obtained from the treatment with cortisone, patients suffering from this disease should be protected against physical stress of all kinds. They are very susceptible to strain, infection, injury, excessive exercise, malnutrition, and excessive exposure to sunlight.

Court Upholds Will Of Bucyrus Man

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS—A Crawford County Common Pleas court jury here late yesterday upheld the validity of the will of the late David Leuthold of Bucyrus, Judge C. U Ahl reported today.

Court attaches said a settlement was reached in the case before the jury met but it was necessary for the jury to render an official decision.

The will was contested by a sister, Louise Leuthold of Bucyrus, who alleged that the paper filed in Probate Court was not his last will

The will specified that all proceeds of the estate should be given Franklin Johns of Bucyrus, whom the Leutholds raised from childhood. Mr. Johns also was named administrator of the estate Mr. Leuthold, a retired farmer, and his wife, Luise, died accidentally in their homes here from fumes of a gas hot water heater in the basement. Their bodies were found in the living room of their home by Mr. Johns.

Demonstration Classes To End Tuesday

Furniture Refinishing Studied by 17 Marion County Women

A class of 17 Marion County women studying furniture refinishing as a home demonstration project will hold final class session on Tuesday, Oct. 30, at the Veterans Memorial Coliseum at the fairgrounds.

Those participating in the class have been learning the technique of removing old finish, preparing a piece of furniture for new finish—including minor repairs such as hole filling and surface raising—and then applying the various types of new finishes.

Teaching the refinishing project are Miss Lois Simmonds, Marion County home demonstration agent, assisted by Mrs. Robert Van Sycle of Cardington, Mrs. Wilbur Mochel of Pleasant Township, Mrs. Eugene Miller of Grand Prairie, and Mrs. Ralph Lemke and Mrs. Henry Reamsnyder of Kirkpatrick. All were trained by extension specialists in home furnishings from Ohio State University.

Members of the class are Mrs. Cloyce Taylor, Mrs. Calmer Clutter, Mrs. Grace McMahan, Mrs. Leona Dunkin, Mrs. Carl Tozzer, Miss Laura John Clark, Mrs. F. C. Hurst, Mrs. W. E. Mathlot, and Mrs. Frank McClenathan, all of in and near Marion, Mrs. H. E. Kellogg, Mrs. Helen Johnston, Mrs. Donna Beam, and Mrs. Don Cook of in and near Caledonia, Mrs. Carl Zurk and Mrs. Paul Rogers of near Prospect, Mrs. Wilbert Linstedt and Mrs. K. W. Koechig of Waldo.

By means of the classes, those participating have learned many facts concerned with furniture refinishing, including types of finish which may be used on furniture, such as shellac, varnish finish, lacquer finish, oil finish, penetrating wood seals and wax.

Name Queen Candidate At Bucyrus High School

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — Bucyrus High School will be represented by Mary Jane Grimm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Grimm, in the Mardi Gras Queen contest to be held here Tuesday. She was elected in an election held this week at the school with representatives of eight extra-curricular groups participating.

Miss Grimm is a sophomore. Other candidates included Doris Downing, Julia Sullivan, Mary Rothaar, Linda Leuthold, Mary Baldy, Jody Bauer and Susan Heckenauer.

Crawford County's 10 rural schools also will enter candidates in the queen contest, officers of the local Kiwanis Club, which is sponsoring the Mardi Gras, reported today.

Personal
To Women With Nagging Backache

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slowdown of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Sycamore Lutherans To Mark Centennial

SYCAMORE— Deunquat Lutheran Church members will celebrate the church's 100th anniversary with a home-coming and special programs Sunday. A potluck dinner will be served at noon and the speaker for the afternoon program will be Rev. Doran Kaiser, statistician of the Ohio Synod, of Dayton The Nevada Lutheran choir will sing and the history of the church will be read by Edward Birmley who has had the longest continuous membership in the church of any of the living members.

The brick sanctuary was built in 1851 and only minor changes have been made over the years until within the last year when a basement was dug, a vestibule added and the interior redecorated. These improvements will be dedicated on Sunday.

Not much of the early history is available but the land for the building was given by Peter Betzer. The church has been closed for periods of time. The last time it was closed from 1925 to 1937. The membership is 31 and the Sunday School attendance is about 70. The Rev. K R. Roberts of Nevada is the pastor.

Records show that in 1890 there were about 30 at Sunday School with an average Sunday collection of 65 cents.

HOMECOMING PLANNED

Homecoming at the Mt Pleasant Church of God near Mt Victory will be Sunday At an afternoon service at 2.30. Dr. Tennyson Guyer of Findlay will speak For preaching service at 11 a.m., Rev S F. Bauders of the Salem Church of God near Marion will fill the pulpit. A basket dinner will be served

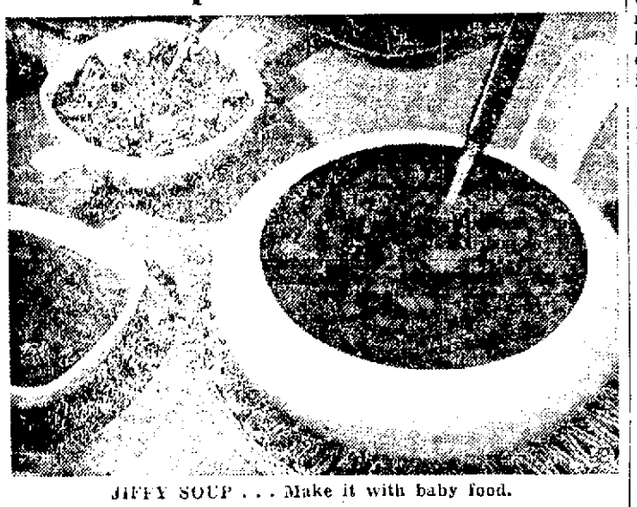
Some Soup Bowl Shortcuts



JIFFY SOUP . . . Make it with baby food.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Do you know that you can make a variety of soups in no time at all for the whole family, using the small jars of strained vegetables that are usually kept on hand for small fry? There's one that's velvety smooth, a pretty color, and with a really delicious flavor. It's a great soup to whip up in an emergency. It's excellent to serve for a company supper when there are a lot of things to do and you want a make-ahead first course that's "different" but can be prepared in short order. Here's the recipe:

VEGETABLE BACON SOUP

Ingredients: 2 tablespoons bacon fat, ½ cup finely diced (1 medium-sized) green pepper, two 4¾-ounce jars strained vegetables-and-bacon, ½ cup water, 1 cup milk, 1½ tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese, salt and freshly-ground pepper (to taste).

Method: Heat bacon fat slowly in medium-sized saucepan, add green pepper, and cook over low heat—stirring a few times—for 5 minutes. Remove from heat; add strained vegetables-and-bacon; swish out the jars with the water and add. Return to low heat and beat with a whisk or rotary beater until well combined. Stir in milk slowly, then cheese, and allow to stand over low heat until very hot; do not boil. Add salt and pepper to taste and serve at once. Makes about 3½ cups soup, enough for four ¾-cup servings.

Nowadays there are also shortcuts to making old-fashioned Split Pea Soup. Instead of soaking the dried peas overnight you can cover them with water, bring them to a boil, cook two minutes, let stand an hour off the heat, and then go on with the soup preparation. The following recipe uses both dried split peas and dried Lima beans as well as nutritious and economical non-fat dry milk. Serve the soup with tiny crisp squares of shredded wheat cereal as a change from croutons.

PEA SOUP DELUXE

Ingredients: 2½ quarts water, 1 ham or pork hock, 1 cup dried split peas, 1 cup dried lima beans, 1 cup coarsely diced onion, 2 cups coarsely diced carrots, 1 cup sliced celery (including leaves), 1 tablespoon salt, 10 peppercorns or ¼ teaspoon pepper, ¼ teaspoon dry mustard, ⅛ teaspoon rosemary, 1 cup lukewarm water, 1 cup non-fat dry milk, 1 tablespoon kitchen bouquet.

Meethod: Place 1½ quarts water in deep kettle; add ham or pork hock; cover and bring to boil. Lower heat and let simmer until meat is tender, about 2 hours. Meanwhile place peas and beans in another pan and cover with remaining quart of water. Bring to boil and cook 2 minutes. Remove from heat and let stand 1 hour only, then add to contents of kettle in which meat is cooking. Add onion, carrot, celery, salt, pepper, mustard, and rosemary. Bring to boil again and continue cooking until all vegetables are tender, about 1 hour longer. Remove ham or pork hock. Put cooked vegetables and broth through sieve or food mill. Return the puree to the soup kettle. Combine lukewarm water and non-fat dry milk in small bowl and beat until smooth. Stir into soup. Add kitchen bouquet and heat soup thoroughly. Correct seasoning if necessary. If desired, remove meat from ham or pork hock and add to soup in small pieces before serving. Makes 3 quarts soup.

The term "Journeyman" originates from the French word, "jour", meaning "day". All workers were known as day laborers in the Renaissance period.

Family Life Study Club Endorses Levy

Endorsement of the four-mill school operating levy was voted by members of the Family Life Study Club when they met recently at the home of Mrs. Thomas Morgan of 271 Barnhart street. A talk regarding the levy was given by Cecil Gabler, principal of Harding High School.

Ten members responded to roll call giving a personal experience on the subject, "The Most Frightening Moment of My Life." Mrs. Walter Moenter was a guest. A contribution of $2 was voted to the Community Chest fund campaign.

Committees were named for the new year by the president as follows: Mrs. Lloyd Strickland, chairman, Mrs. Daniel McClaskey, Mrs. Melvin Keeran and Mrs. Raymond Baer, program; Mrs Kenneth Collins, chairman, Mrs Allen Fulton, Mrs. Thomas Morgan and Mrs. Harold Kingsley, social; Mrs. Chester Scott, chairman, and Mrs. Blaine Smith, flowers and gifts; Mrs. Starling Somerlot, chairman, Mrs. Zell Bruce and Mrs. Francis Walters, welfare; and Mrs. Loren Cope, historian.

Mrs. Lloyd Strickland, in charge of the program for the evening, gave a talk on "Child Psychology," explaining what the club can do in the community. A discussion followed.

The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Moenter. A potluck supper will be held at the next meeting at the home of Mrs. Allen Fulton at 406 Cherry street.

DOCTOR IN THE HOUSE?

BOSTON,—(UP)—Dr. Timothy Leary, 82, retired Boston medical-examiner, is the husband of a physician and both his daughters are physicians.

Friendship Night Observed By Job's Daughters

Friendship Night was observed, with members of Bethel No. 22 of Delaware as guests, when Marion Bethel No. 2, Job's Daughters, met Tuesday night in the Masonic Temple.

The evening also was highlighted with a surprise reception for two state officers, Miss Ann Harter of Delaware, vice grand guardians of the state of Ohio and also guardian of the Delaware Bethel, and Ralph Harruff of Marion, vice associate grand guardian of the state of Ohio and assistant associate guardian of the Marion Bethel. Both were presented gifts from the Marion Bethel. Shirley Fetter, honored queen of the Marion Bethel, presided and made the presentations.

Thirty members from the Delaware Bethel were present. Total attendance was nearly 100.

The program for the evening included a group of accordion numbers by Mrs. Goldie Swope, a baton twirling act by Rozella Gettys, and piano selections by Marlene Davis.

In a business session, plans were completed for a hayride to be held Nov. 3 at a cost of 50 cents per couple. The next regular meeting of the Bethel will be Nov. 13.

District Home Group Meets In Bucyrus

Reports of State Demonstration Council Heard

Reports of a recent state Home Demonstration Council executive meeting highlighted the business session when District No. 2, Home Council, met Monday, Oct. 22, at the King's Daughters In-As-Much Chapter House in Bucyrus.

Attending the district meeting from Marion County were Mrs. Walter Rothfuss, secretary and treasurer of the Marion County Home Demonstration Council, and Miss Lois Simons, county home demonstration agent. Other counties represented were Crawford, Wyandot, Delaware, Seneca, Sandusky and Ottawa. Mrs. Warren Cooper of Crawford County presided.

Through the reports, it was learned a recommendation made by the state executive committee was to promote the establishment of an active health and safety committee in each county in the state. The main objective of this committee would be to make a survey of services of health agencies now in the county and then publicize the information, and if the services are inadequate, do something about them.

Another recommendation was to have families in each county entertain some international students in Ohio colleges over the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays.

Recommendation

Working toward interesting all women in assuming their responsibilities as informed and active citizens was also recommended. This can be done by studying the qualifications of all candidates, keeping informed especially on legislation that effects the home, being willing to accept office, and voting in all elections, to mention a few.

The afternoon was spent in discussing how county home demonstration councils can be more effective. Some conclusions reached were: that home council members should realize and accept their responsibility; that public relations should include factual information —not just meeting notices, that councilors should make home visits in their community to assist in yearly program development; and that council members should really make it their business to find out what the Agricultural Extension Service is all about and then keep others informed.

Indian Theme Features Vernon Heights Dance

Students of Vernon Heights Junior High School danced amidst an atmosphere of Indian summer Friday afternoon at a "Big Pow Wow" dance. Corn stalks and bright Indian colors and symbols decorated the gymnasium.

Intermission featured a display of smoke signals and a war dance by the ninth grade football players.

Student committees for the dance were headed by Helen Kannel, Rebecca Weaver, Bob Wilson, Margie Firstenberger and Sally Schneider. Faculty advisors were Miss Helen May, Miss Barbara Axe, Emile John, James Lawler and Don Baggs.

Hamsters, small mammals widely used in laboratory research, are members of the mouse family.

District Students Pledge Sororities At Ohio State

Autumn quarter sorority pledges of Marion and the area announced by the office of the Dean of Women at Ohio State University are as follows:

Marion, Josephine Rayburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Rayburn of 501 South Vine street, Alpha Phi; Carol L. Teitelbaum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lou J. Teitelbaum of 320 Summit street, Alpha Epsilon Phi.

Bucyrus, Barbara J. Baer, Alpha Chi Omega; Doris M. Bergen, Kappa Alpha Theta; Virginia J. Mellott, Delta Delta Delta.

Delaware, Ruth E. Easterday, Alpha Phi.

Fredericktown, Lois L. Alspach, Delta Delta Delta.

Galion, Helen L. Blackhall, Alpha Chi Omega.

Kenton, Varra J. Hastings, Alpha Gamma Delta.

Marysville, Nancy A. McLaughlin, Alpha Phi; Mary E. Turner, Alpha Xi Delta.

Ohio Attorney General On Program Here Nov. 1

Ohio Attorney General William O'Neill of Columbus will speak at a dinner meeting of the Marion County Republican Women's Club Nov. 1 at Hotel Marion. The dinner will be at 6:30 p.m. in the Vogue Room of the hotel.

Caledonia High School Class Officers Elected

Election results in the top six grades of Caledonia School were reported this week by Thomas Brown, school superintendent.

Leading the senior class as president is Margaret Martin. Assisting her are Wayne Gray, vice president; Marjorie Hildreth, secretary, and Roy Smith, treasurer.

The junior class selected Peg Walter, president; James Kirk, vice president; John Boger, secretary, and Betty Weir, treasurer.

John Kightlinger is president of the sophomore class. Taking office with him are Selorus Tomlin, vice president; Joanne Hoffman, secretary, and James Cain, treasurer.

Officers of the freshman class are James Ulsh, president; Janis Reamsnyder, vice president, Cherita Underwood, secretary, and Doug Whiteamire, treasurer.

Results in the eighth grade election were Connie Moorman, president; Lyle Murphy, vice president; Regina Yondo, secretary, and John Sherer, treasurer.

The seventh graders elected Becky Scheiffler, president; Robert Detwiler, vice president, Joyce Smith, secretary, and Virgil Hildreth, treasurer.

The student council of the school is made up of the presidents and vice presidents of each class.

Modern agricultural scientists have developed a turkey of only five to 10 pounds, dressed weight.

Macaroni and Cheese Pie Is Treat To Eat

YOU don't need to be a seal to know the secret of balancing the budget—recipes like this one will help. There's nothing better than the old-fashioned goodness of creamy macaroni and cheese for an economical way to satisfy those hearty appetites sharpened by the invigorating fall air. And just watch the family come running when they get a whiff of the appetizing aroma of this flavorful pie!

MACARONI AND CHEESE PIE

1 T salt
3 quarts boiling water
8 ozs. elbow macaroni
½ lb. American cheese, grated
1 14½-oz. can evaporated milk
2 T chopped pimentos
1½ t salt
Freshly ground pepper
2 tomatoes, cut in wedges
2 T chopped parsley

Add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add macaroni so that water continutes to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander.

In a large bowl combine cooked macaroni with remaining ingredients; mix lightly, but thoroughly. Pour macaroni and cheese mixture into greased deep pie plate, 9 inches in diameter Place tomato wedges in a ring, pressing partially into macaroni mixture Bake in slow oven (325 F.) 25-30 minutes. Before serving, sprinkle with chopped parsley.

Expert Can Convert Typewriter Keyboards For Any Language

NEW YORK—(UP)—Let Martin Tytell make a typing error and it might have international complications.

Tytell is a specialist at making typewriters work in any one of 147 languages and is on steady call both by the U S State Department and United Nations headquarters here.

He can convert a standard keyboard into Siamese or Cherokee or Pakistan Anything you want

Whatever his conversion job, it has to be right.

"You can imagine," he said, "what would happen if I got my alphabets mixed . . . and a typewriter used by a secretary for the British delegation started producing Russian."

Admits Mistake

He never had anything like that happen in his work for the U N but the typewriter expert said there's an error in the Burmese-writing machine at Yale, and Yale hasn't discovered it.

Tytell said that several years ago the university ordered a Burmese alphabet typewriter for its oriental languages department.

Through an error, which he later discovered, some of the symbols were on upside down.

"To this day, the language experts haven't found my error," he said. "At least if they have, they've kept quiet about it."

Has Own Ideas

Tytell, a stoutish blond man of 36, said that from his work with U.N. diplomats he's reached a conclusion about handling international relations

"The trouble is," he said, "some of the people at the U.N. forget about little people like me How do they expect to be any good at world diplomacy if they fail on the individual level?"

"I'm talking about just some of the people at the U.N.," he said "But honest, you know they try to get around paying a rent or repair bill"

Tytell is more of an expert on alphabets than he is at speaking the languages His cluttered shop in downtown New York includes more than a million type faces, with type of almost every nation represented.

Wide Range of Customers

His customers range from the stenographer who wants a key repaired to a nation which wants 500 machines He's done special conversion jobs for General Eisenhower and the Prince of Saudi Arabia.

It was during the Arab-Israeli war three years ago that Tytell supplied typewriters to both sides

"I'll have to admit," Tytell said, "that my sympathies were with the Jewish people. You know what I did? Those typewriters the Arabs bought didn't write Arabic at all I changed every one of them to Urdu—a dialect of the Indian people."

GREEN CAMP CLASS MEETS

Bucyrus Chest Pledges Near $21,229 Goal

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS—Approximately 75 percent of the Bucyrus Community Chest campaign goal of $21,229 already has been raised, J F. Kebe, campaign general chairman, announced here today.

Pledges to date amount to $16,-098. Another report meeting will be held Thursday and the final report session is scheduled for Monday.

Best showing to date has been made by the residential division which reported pledges totaling $1,902 of the $2,150 goal. Other divisional pledges and goals include: industrial, $9,901 of $12,000 goal; business and professional, $2,162 of $2,660; commercial, $2,212 of $3,555. The schools and public employes division have not yet made a report.

Find New Way To Control Flies

ITHACA, N. Y — (UP) — The squirt gun used to spray dairy barns may be succeeded by a revolutionary method of controlling houseflies

The new method has been devised by Cornell U scientists Strips of screen are dipped in an insecticide (dieldrin) and hung along the barn ceiling Flies are irresistably attracted to the strips and die soon after contact with them.

The Food and Drug administration had not yet sanctioned the new method but official permission is anticipated after second-year observations are on record

Profs David Pimentel, H H Schwardt, and L B Norton observed that flies were partial to narrow objects as resting places and preferred a screen surface to one of wood, glass, or metal.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

I think the only effect of the ban on color television was that the people promoting it turned white, red and green in that order.

But most of us feel that so long as we can get Red Skelton in black and white we won't miss anybody's blue program.

* * * *

Red had a clean program even before he was selling laundry supplies and nobody ever has to air out the room after he signs off.

Somebody has missed a bet in not snaring Red for the Diplomatic Service . . . even the Russians couldn't stay mad after he had fallen up the Kremlin steps a few times and clowned through a conference wearing Stalin's hat upside down.

Anyway, except for the loss of Godfrey's freckles in gorgeous natural hue, we are sustaining no great loss in the color setback at the moment.

And for those of us who work on the other side of the lens this is a real boon . . . It means I can wear the same neckties I always wear—drab.

FIRST AID TO AILING HOUSE

—By ROGER C. WHITMAN—

BACK DRAFT FROM CHIMNEY

Q.: I have put up a new outside chimney which draws well; but I did not extend it up to the roof peak, because it seemed to draw so well. I have a kerosene water heater connected with the smoke pipe of the furnace, when there is a wind, there is a back draft which seems to blow soot into the house. What can I do to stop this?

A.: Your first mistake is in running the smoke pipe from the heater into the furnace smoke pipe. Ordinarily no two heating units should be connected to the same flue. You may however get improved results if the water heater pipe was directly connected to the chimney. This connection should be at least eighteen inches above that of the furnace pipe It is generally not considered good chimney construction when the top is below or at the level of the roof peaks. Such construction tends to cause back dratts
